Endorsements: The Men, The Offices and The Reasons

The Sun has printed its endorsements of candidates for most local offices. Here again are these endorsements, and the reasoning behind them.

SHERIFF

The Sun endorses incumbent Sheriff Harry A. Brown. This is not a reflection on the ability or personality of his opponent Walter Young.

Brown's record during his four years in office has been mixed. However, law enforcement in the county is good. The county is clean of gambling and vice.

And under preceding sheriffs' administrations, the county had the reputation of being one of the worst in the nation as far as organized gambling and vice are concerned.

Honesty is an important factor when it comes to electing a sheriff. Harry Brown could have picked up thousands of dollars, but he has not done so. In addition, he has turned back funds to the county that he legally would have kept (and which previous sheriffs have kept).

Harry Brown is the stronger of the two candidates, and therefore receives The Sun's endorsement.

ASSEMBLY, 10TH DISTRICT

The Sun recommends either Republican Sam Conti or Democrat Jerome Waldie.

Both are good men, and it is evident that both would perform much the same function if elected to office. Either would make a good assemblyman.

Both men have individual traits that will recommend them to their followers. Conti, 36 years old, is an attorney from Pittsburg. Waldie, also an attorney, is 33 and from Antioch. Both are bright, conscientious and hard working.

Conti is a few years older and a little smoother. He has had more experience on governing boards and in community service.

Waldie, on the other hand, has a certain idealism that recommends him. Yet, we believe he is strong enough that he will not allow himself to be pushed around by party or labor bosses.

It appears that there would be little difference in the voting record in the assembly between the two. As a Republican in a strong Democrat-labor district, Conti would vote pro-labor and very liberal, just as Republican Don Doyle did. Waldie, of course, would vote the same way—only more so.

So therefore, The Sun recommends either man.

JUDGE, WALNUT CREEK JUDICIAL DISTRICT

The Sun recommends Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn for Judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

Both Mrs. Rahn and her opponent, Terence Ring, are attorneys. Both are good people.

However, Mrs. Rahn has agreed, if she is elected, to give up her private practice and devote full time to the job. This will avoid all possible conflict of interest, and therefore The Sun endorses Mrs. Rahn.

This endorsement is also based on the fact that the judgeship is for a judicial district. When the district has a municipal court, certainly other attorneys should seek the post.

But this year the endorsement goes to Mrs. Rahn.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

The Sun recommends Dr. Floyd Marchus for county superintendent of schools. This is based on the fact that Dr. Marchus has evidently done a fine job for school districts throughout the county in his capacity as Director of Research Services for the county schools. Many of the local school staffs, administrators and trustees are supporting Marchus. His educational background and experience appear broader than Ralph Harris, superintendent of the Sheldon School District, in El Sobrante.

CONGRESS, 6TH DISTRICT

The Sun endorses incumbent John Baldwin for congressman to represent the 6th District.

Baldwin has done an excellent job during the last four years. He has an outstanding 100 per-cent voting record in Congress and he has worked hard for his own district.

He has served two terms and is now gaining much needed seniority, which is important in Washington, D. C. There is no reason for changing congressmen "just for a change."

Howard Jewel is young, personable and aggressive. He makes a fine appearance and is a good speaker.

However, on the basis of John Baldwin's record, The Sun endorses him for re-election.

Why The Sun Endorses . . .

The Sun is recommending candidates for both partisan and non-partisan local offices.

Why has this policy of endorsing been established, and what is behind it?

For many years, it was the opinion of staff members of The Sun that we had no right to tell other people how to vote. All of us are human, and everybody is opinionated, whether he knows it or will admit it or not.

BUT IT WAS finally agreed that by endorsing we would not be "telling people how to vote." The Sun would be simply printing a list of recommendations based on personal contact with the men who are running for office.

For this reason The Sun endorsed candidates in the June primary elections. In past years The Sun has taken a stand when it felt that a dangerous issue was present.

The Sun's policy has always been clearly stated in its editorial page.

Every voter cannot meet every candidate. It is a physical impossibility. But staff members of The Sun can talk with each candidate. Furthermore, through the normal rounds of newspapering, staff members come in contact with supporters of the various candidates, as well as their opponents, and sometimes come across facts not available to the average voter.

However, endorsing candidates is not based on a simple meeting with the candidates. More, it was a careful process of interviewing each man, talking with his supporters and opponents, evaluating the total picture, and then presenting a recommendation.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE that it may not be perfect, certainly the system is not infallible.

Certainly our recommendations are not to be construed as "holier-than-thou" attempts to dictate what is every man's right—to vote as he chooses.

They are simply what they are stated to be — recommendations based on a thorough study of the men and the issues as our staff and time have permitted.

Vote No on Transit Bonds

Tuesday you will be asked to vote on a $16.9 million bond issue, the purpose of which is to provide funds for the purchase of Key System and other facilities by the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

Now $16.9 million is a lot of money, even if it is a two-county project, and you should get a good deal of benefit from such a sum.

However, our area would benefit very little from the passage of this bond issue—certainly not in proportion to the amount of money we would have to put into it.

WHEN THE ALAMEDA-Contra Costa Transit District was formed there was a great deal of confusion in many minds between the five-county rapid transit district and the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

Many people voted for the formation of the present two-county district in the belief that they were voting for rapid transit.

This was not the case.

But there is little sense in our contributing to the purchase of Key System.

THE DISTRICT HAS said it would install bus routes in Contra Costa County, and we should be grateful for small favors—but the amount of service which we would get would not come close to matching the funds we would pay.

Not one organization in Central Contra Costa County has come out in favor of the bond proposal, and many have come out against it.

The Contra Costa Commuters Association, the Taxpayers Association and the board of supervisors have all urged that the bond proposal be defeated.

GREYHOUND LEAVES much to be desired, but it can and is doing the job for the commuters at the present time. Obviously some other solution to the commute problems will have to be found for this area. Rapid transit could do the trick.

But this is not rapid transit, and it will not help the commuters' plight.

The purchase price of Key system has not been set. In effect, passage of the bond issue would be to give the transit district a blank check—one which would be turned over to Key system.

To this date, Key System has refused to meet with the district to negotiate a price for its property.

INSTEAD OF $7.1 million the Key may receive a check for upwards of $12 million with most of the money going to absentee owners in Chicago.

An average price of $12,000 has been set for buses that average 10 years old and may have been driven over 300,000 miles each.

The Committee for Transit Action has stated that "administrative and general expenses under district operation will be nearly four times larger than Key's 1957 actual expenses — $880,000 versus $242,848.

We urge you to vote no on Proposition B—Transit District Bonds.

County Bond Proposals: A Yes Vote Recommended

You will find two county bond issue proposals on your ballot Tuesday. They are Propositions C and D.

Proposition C calls for the issuance of $1,220,000 in 14-year bonds to acquire two office structures now under lease from the County Employees Retirement Fund.

PROPOSITION D calls for passage of a $1 million bond issue with an interest rate not to exceed three and one half per cent to be amortized in 15 years. The money will be used to finance an addition of 36,000 square feet to the county administration building.

The Sun recommends a Yes vote on both propositions.

Proposition C will save the county an estimated $144,000, and economies are greatly to be desired as the cost of living increases.

The argument against the bond issue is that the county can then turn around and borrow from the retirement fund again, and might possibly build structures that the residents would not feel worthwhile.

At present the county has borrowed to the legal limit from the retirement fund. However, if Proposition C passes, this money will be repaid and the county could again borrow from the fund without seeking the approval of county residents, as they must in the case of a bond issue.

Proposition D, which has the support of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, would provide badly needed space for county administrative offices.

THERE CAN BE little doubt that by the time the building is completed, sometime in 1960, the need for space will be even more apparent than it is now.

The only argument against this proposal is that a master plan of county building and expansion is needed before major construction is undertaken.

However, both proposals have merit, and considering the needs of the county, a Yes vote is recommended on both Proposition C and Proposition D.

These Men Will Work for Us

You will have the opportunity Tuesday to vote for three directors for the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District Board of Directors.

You will vote for the director in your ward, plus two directors at large.

If you live in the Pleasant Hill or Concord areas, you are in Ward II. If you live in Walnut Creek, Alamo, Lafayette or Orinda areas, you are in Ward I.

THE SUN RECOMMENDS that you vote for Neal S. Higgins if you live in Ward II and Richard Mitchell if you live in Ward I.

The Sun recommends Eugene P. Cadernasso and Herbert B. Kincaid as directors at large.

These men have all agreed on the following policy matters:

1. Not to operate so as to conflict with the five-county rapid transit district.
  2. They are against Proposition B, the transit district bond issue.
  3. They are pledged to consider the requests for withdrawal of areas which do not wish to continue in the district.
  4. THEY HAVE agreed to work for legislation to simplify the procedure for withdrawal of discontented areas.
- The Contra Costa Taxpayers Association has endorsed Mr. Higgins and the two directors at large.
- We think that these men would give us good representation, and that they will work for our interests.
- We recommend that you support them at the polls Tuesday.

Staff Predicts Who Will Win Tuesday's Election

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Who is going to win next Tuesday's election?

Well, since newspapermen are the smartest people on earth (if you don't believe this, ask them), I polled the five editors on the staff—Dick Osborn, Norm Colby, Bob Rapida, Bill Hines and myself. The question: Aside from personal preference, who do you think will win the local races?

Each man prepared his list independently. With two exceptions, noted below, the five unanimously made this selection:

Congressman: John Baldwin. (Hines picked Jewel.)

Assemblyman: Jerry Waldie. (Colby named Conti.)

Sheriff: Harry Brown.

County Superintendent of Schools: Floyd Marchus.

Judge, W.C. Judicial District: Terry Ring.

Supervisor, district 3: Ray Taylor.

This poll does not indicate who the editors favor but who they think will win.

More from the crystal ball

I personally think the race for supervisor (part of Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, etc.) is a toss up, with a slight edge to Ray Taylor. Tom Coll, however, may earn enough protest votes to defeat Taylor. In the Sheriff's race, Brown should have no trouble beating Young. The congressional battle could be very tight. A democratic sweep could sweep Baldwin out and Jewel in. This too is close.

Because of the probable demo landslide and because both are high calibre men, Waldie should easily win the assembly seat over Conti. Marchus should win over Harris for county superintendent of schools.

Most interesting staff prediction is Terry Ring over Betsy Rahn for judge (parts of Pleasant Hill and Alamo, all of Orinda, Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Moraga, Canyon.) Remember that Mrs. Rahn was first in a field of nine in the primary election. And yet each editor tabbed Ring to win next Tuesday.

Note also that The Sun is recommending Mrs. Rahn for reason stated. I point this out to show that editors do not believe that you voters' will necessarily vote for a candidate because a newspaper says so. Ring's campaign has been gaining steam and may well have passed the Rahn campaign train.

This was a tough one

Endorsing candidates can be embarrassing. Take the supervisorial race—Taylor vs. Coll. We think Taylor is a less-than-adequate supervisor. He does a poor job in many ways. And yet The Sun endorses Taylor because we feel he will do a better job than his opponent. Taylor should be defeated in 1962 by a very capable man. This is no personal reflection on Taylor or Coll. I personally like both men.

In fact, all the local candidates are nice people. A lack of endorsement is certainly no reflection upon any candidate.

Sun editors did not predict state races. I think, however, that Pat Brown and Judge Stanley Mosk could very well spell victory for the rest of the state democratic slate.

The only state office we are recommending is Mosk for attorney general because he is an able, qualified candidate. His opponent, Republican Pat Hillings, is not.

A democratic sweep for lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, controller and treasurer might be an unhappy event for California. These democratic candidates are not particularly qualified and even top democrats admit this. Let's put it another way: why kick out men experienced in their jobs because they are republicans. That is basically the appeal being made by these democrat candidates.

A look at EBMUD candidates

The Sun has not explained its endorsement of Louis Breuner and Harold Saunders for reelection as directors of East Bay Municipal Utility District. You might recall that several months ago The Sun suggested that you interested citizens should go out and find able candidates to run against these incumbents. Several groups did institute a search—but, as so often happens, qualified men were unwilling to run.

We are tempted to endorse the two opposition candidates—Anga Bjornson from Oakland and Dan Luten from Berkeley. This endorsement would simply be a protest against the high-handed, arbitrary methods and policies of the Board and EBMUD. The Sun has clearly stated what it thinks of EBMUD—a well-run governmental district but entirely unresponsive to the public's wishes—often dictatorial and undemocratic.

(Note, however, that during this campaign the board has suddenly announced its willingness to consider subjects that interest the public—fluoridation, public land, re-routing of aqueduct lines, etc. We hope this is not solely an election maneuver.)

Put temptation aside

But endorsement of Miss Bjornson and Luten would not be wise. It would simply be a protest. We would be obstructionistic. The opposition is not qualified to run EBMUD, although I think it would be wonderful to have someone on the board who would vote NO every now and then.

Miss Bjornson and Luten are running solely on one platform: to retain EBMUD lands, primarily around the San Pablo Reservoir for park purposes. This, of course, I would like to see, but this is another discussion. This election will not show a mandate from the people that they want these lands retained—or how to achieve it.

Breuner of Piedmont and Saunders of Lafayette are capable executives who devote many hours to EBMUD. We should be thankful there are such public-spirited citizens willing to work so hard for the public. Too many of us are unwilling to spend the time and effort and to take the abuse of public office. I hope, however, that

Counselors To Meet Tomorrow

School counselors and deans from throughout Northern California will attend a conference tomorrow at Diablo Valley College on "A Critical Examination of Counseling Practices." Mrs. Jane Castellanos, counselor at the college, is program chairman.

Key speaker at the conference, sponsored by the Northern California Guidance Association, will be Dr. John E. Bell, acting chief of mental health services, Region IX of the United States Public Health Service.

His subject will be "Current Counseling Practices in the Light of Mental Health."

Registration and coffee from 9:30 to 10:15 a.m. will open the conference, and Dr. Bell will speak at 10:30 a.m. Section meetings will follow luncheon.

Other section topics are as follows: Multiple Counseling as an Approach to Chronic Behavior Problems, The Emotional Basis of Reading Problems as It Affects Elementary School Counseling, Test Interpretation as an Aid to Self-Understanding and Referral as a Constructive Step in the Counseling Process.

The conference, according to association officers, was advanced from the original date of November 8 to tomorrow.

Responsibility Of Transit District to Public Outlined

The Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District will owe to the people of the East Bay area two major responsibilities if the $16,900,000 transit bond issue is approved by the voters next Tuesday, according to district officials.

Directors of the district, must first of all, commence operation on a new, high-quality transit system that will attract more riders to its services. This, in turn, will help clear vehicular traffic on East Bay streets and freeways, and generally promote greater prosperity for the two-county area, they say.

OF EQUAL IMPORTANCE, the district will be expected to operate this vastly improved and expanded transit network without increasing taxes, and at reduced local fares, they continued.

Directors and management of the district have promised to carry out both of these responsibilities.

Backed by extensive engineering studies, the district believes it can increase patronage five percent the first year of operation and three percent the second year.

THIS WOULD mean an about-face in the steady decline of transit patronage that has plagued this and other areas since the end of World War II. They claim.

The nationally recognized firm of engineers which prepared the district's mass transit plan, De Leuw, Cather & Company, has stated its reputation on this forecast. The engineers also are firmly convinced the system will be capable of supporting itself from revenues at a 20-cent local fare, and will not require a tax subsidy.

A reversal in the downward trend of transit riding could prove to be of great benefit in unsmothering the clogged streets and freeways of the two counties, engineers of the district have said.

"The district's new express bus network operating partially on freeways plus other improvements is expected to substantially relieve congestion and every busload of passengers eliminates an average of 30 autos from streets and freeways," according to John Wortington, manager.

A five percent increase in transit riding would clear East Bay roadways of approximately 1000 autos a day. Altogether, this would represent a clear stretch of two-lane freeway 15 miles long, he said.

Engineers point out there is ample room to increase public transit patronage. With the exception of Minneapolis, the East Bay area has the lowest ratio of riders to population of any large metropolitan area in the entire nation.

To attract riders back to public transit, the transit district has promised a number of improvements over the outdated equipment and service now provided by Key System and Western Greyhound Lines.

Buses planned for transbay and other suburban service would be equipped with air-ride suspension providing a smoother ride, bright modern interiors, wider and deeply upholstered seats with arm rests, all seats facing forward, greater room between seats, and overhead storage space for bundles.

New equipment to be used in central Contra Costa County and southern Alameda County would be air conditioned. As demand develops air-conditioning will be extended to other areas of the district, Worthington noted.

The district plans new local service to more than 100,000 persons who presently have no public transportation; more frequent service on existing lines; new express bus service, sharply reducing travel times between distant points in the district; increased rider comfort with 334 new buses of advanced design and styling; transit passenger terminals in Berkeley, Oakland, and possibly Concord, Walnut Creek, San Leandro, and Hayward; convenient, inexpensive bus transfer stations and shelters at freeway interchanges, and all-day parking facilities for park-and-ride patrons at strategic points served by express bus lines.

The bond amount of $16,900,000 includes $13,200,000 for new equipment, existing and new storage yards and maintenance facilities, plus $3,700,000 to purchase a portion of the buses currently used by Key System and Western Greyhound.

Under The Sun: Who Will Win Tuesday's Election

Breuner, in particular, and the entire five-man board will remember that EBMUD is a public district and not a private corporation.

We hope the frank statements of our views will be of some help to you. Ditto our editorial and news presentation this week. Study the recommendations on the propositions. Read the arguments in the booklet you received with your sample ballot. And then decide for yourself.

This week The Sun devoted its Editorial-feature page solely to the election—and put it on the first page. This is an experiment only to emphasize the importance of voting next Tuesday. The Sun's endorsement are merely recommendations. We could be wrong. Of course, you will vote for whom you think is the better man.

The Sun will have election returns on LOCAL RACES only starting Wednesday morning at 9. Phone us, if you wish.

See you at the polls next Tuesday.

Letters to The Editor

EBMUD

DEAR EDITOR:

EBMUD is a public utility district owned by the people with five directors to be elected by the people. Since 1932, however, not one director has gone on the board by vote of the people. They have been appointed to fill unexpired terms and then appeared as incumbents on the ballot. These are successful business men of independent means who are free to give their time and who meet socially to discuss such appointments.

Since 1932, 15 men have been appointed to these elective offices including all of the present members of the board.

From 1936 to 1954, no one apparently has felt it worth his while to run against the incumbents.

Present members of the board are all of one political party. For 27 years the presidency of the board has been in the hands of the Downtown Oakland-Piedmont Ward.

At board meetings (second and fourth Fridays at 2 p.m.) there are seldom any questions, little discussion and never any arguments or opposition to President Breuner.

According to President Breuner, he is the member who is always informed about the District and he informs the other members of the Board.

In four and one-half years, there has been only one sustained negative vote.

Other than legal action, there is no group or individual to whom employees or owners of the District may appeal beyond the judgment or opinion of the Board and President Breuner.

In my opinion, the present "setup" is an oligarchy and presents a serious challenge to those who think in terms of democratic government.

HELEN M. BOLE

TRANSIT

DEAR EDITOR:

A YES vote on the Transit District bonds is of importance to the entire central Contra Costa County area. Not only will it be a big step forward but there is no other way out. It will give us more frequent service and more branch lines without any increase in fares and with no tax burden—despite the loud arguments of opponents.

While Greyhound has been kind to the commuters in recent months they cannot long continue at the present setup. Should the bond issue fail to carry at the election we shall have to look for some unpleasant occurrences very soon. We shall be much better off if we vote for the bonds.

JOHN E. MCKIRAHAN

FLUORIDATION

DEAR EDITOR:

The Health Departments serving the jurisdiction in which water from your district is distributed strongly favor providing a water supply containing one part per million fluorine in order to reduce dental cavities.

Fluoridation of a public water supply is unquestionably a safe and effective public health measure for the control of dental decay.

We are convinced that in order to accomplish the objective of providing a fluoridated water supply, all necessary legal steps should be taken.

In order to implement this we urge your support of legislation which would give the district the legal authority to fluoridate, and which would give the voters of the district an opportunity to make their wishes on this subject known through an election.

We feel that the enactment of such legislation will be the first step toward achieving the desired goal of fluoridation.

DR. HENRIK L. BLUM

County Health Officer

Red Cross First Aid Course To Begin Tuesday

A Standard First Aid course will be given by the American Red Cross, beginning Tuesday at the Mt. Diablo Chapter House, Walnut Creek.

According to Mrs. Arthur Hammonds, chapter chairman, the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American National Red Cross, located at 1395 Civic Drive, Walnut Creek, is a member of the United Crusade this year.

The Chapter is now a participant of the Contra Costa United Crusade, which is now conducting its fund drive.

"Your contribution to the Crusade will constitute a contribution to Mt. Diablo Red Cross Chapter. And by the same token, if you help with their fund drive, you will be helping your Red Cross Chapter," said Mrs. Hammonds.

It was also announced that the American Red Cross will hold a workshop in San Francisco on November 12.

It will be held at the San Francisco County Medical Society Auditorium, 250 Masonic Avenue, from 10 to 12 a.m.

Furious Arguments Traded By Candidates Ring, Rahn

A head-on collision, political-type, occurred yesterday morning between Walnut Creek Judicial District judge candidates Mrs. Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn and Terence Ring.

Mrs. Rahn, seconded by her husband, Leon, and Ring, seconded by his brother, James and another attorney, Jackson Davis, "battled" for more than an hour.

The issue: Mrs. Rahn's trial experience. It was raised at the Sun candidate night, held Wednesday night at Acalanes High School.

THE REFEREE: The Judicial Court records, which include the court "dockets" and the papers filed for each case.

The decision: For Mrs. Rahn—a "technical" knockout, said Ring, a clear victory, said Mrs. Rahn.

The result: a retraction prepared by attorney Ring, with his explanation of his position in the matter.

There are several versions of what happened, and what was said by the rivals and their supporters at the Candidates Night.

MRS. RAHN and Mr. Davis spent a great deal of time yesterday morning in angry denunciations and "clarifications" of the "wager."

A check of The Sun's records reveals that Davis, speaking for Ring had stated, "I also have found no record of your having tried any case in this justice court."

"Will you (speaking to Mrs. Rahn) meet us in that court tomorrow at 9 a.m. with the understanding that whoever is wrong will make a public retraction by tomorrow afternoon."

Mrs. Rahn furiously accepted the challenge.

YESTERDAY morning, she arrived with court "papers" which both sides agreed proved that she had in fact handled at least two trial cases, one criminal and the other civil, in the justice court.

The civil action was dated December 16, 1954, and concerned an action arising from an automobile accident.

The criminal action was dated September 21, 1954, and concerned a woman charged with a misdemeanor (CVC 525). She was defended by Mrs. Rahn and found not guilty.

Ring stated yesterday morning that his conclusions were the result of examinations of criminal and civil dockets in the court, and they did not have Mrs. Rahn's name on them.

Mrs. Rahn replied, "I am not responsible for how a court keeps its records."

RING HAD stated that Mrs. Rahn claimed she had tried, and not just appeared, in seven cases in the court. Mrs. Rahn retorted that she had said she had "seven matters" in the court, and this did not imply seven trial experiences.

Candidate Offers 'Clarification' On Rahn Experience

Walnut Creek Judicial District judge candidate Terence Ring yesterday issued, as a result of a "wager" in The Sun's Candidate Night, a "clarification" bearing upon a point raised concerning rival candidate Mrs. Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn's previous trial experience.

The issue I raised at The Sun's Candidate Night is that the major qualification for the office of trial judge of the judicial district is previous experience as a trial attorney in that and other courts.

"I stated that I had examined the dockets of our Justice Courts, and that Mrs. Rahn's name did not appear as ever having tried a case therein.

"Mrs. Rahn yesterday showed me her office records, confirming that in 1954 she had one civil case and one traffic citation hearing in this court.

"However, Mrs. Rahn and I checked the Justice Court dockets and confirmed that her name did not appear therein, through inadvertence or error," Ring concluded.

Talk Reaches Frenzied Peak at Candidate Night

Some 800 avid listeners heard candidates for public office argue issues and personalities at The Sun's Candidates' Night Wednesday at Acalanes High School.

SHERIFF HARRY A. Brown and Sheriff's Sergeant Walter Young presented their platforms for improving the services offered by the Contra Costa Sheriff's office.

Brown said: "You have a decent, efficient law enforcement program and your children can now walk the streets without having to pass establishments dedicated to vice."

Young slammed Brown for not holding staff conferences and for allowing poor morale to exist in the department.

Brown agreed with a question concerning the Lafayette area that there is not enough police protection at night.

Brown pointed out that he has requested more men, but they have not been made available to him by the supervisors.

Young was asked if he was an "industrialist's candidate."

YOUNG FLATLY declared that he was not.

After tempers had flared in both the audience and at the speakers' platform, Jerome Waldie and Sam Conti, candidates tenth district assembly took the rostrum.

WALDIE PROCLAIMED of his pride of the Democratic Party and the platform on which the party was built. Waldie hurled accusations at U.S. Senator William Fife Knowland, candidate for governor, saying that he had sold out the north's water rites for Southern California votes.

In rebuttal statements, Conti, a republican, read from a newspaper an article indicating that Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, democratic candidate for governor had "apparently taken a similar position."

When asked by Waldie for whom he was voting for governor, Conti retorted: "Knowland."

WALDIE THANKED Conti for the information which he had been trying to "find out for weeks."

Conti billed education as the greatest problem which faces the district while water took a second place in importance. Waldie billed water as THE problem.

After the partisan politicians took their leave, Herman Silverman, editor and publisher of The Sun, who was host at the evening's proceedings, introduced the aspirants for judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn, a mild-appearing attractive woman, won the toss over C. Terence Ring, well known and popular Walnut Creek attorney.

RING REITERATED his statements that he would give the office of judge all the time that would be necessary to discharge

Sheriff Office Calls Reserves For Halloween

Strict enforcement of curfew laws and heavy patrolling of all areas of the county was ordered today by Contra Costa Sheriff Harry A. Brown to control Halloween "festivities."

The sheriff ordered that 35 units with one regular deputy and one reserve officer be manned tonight throughout the county in addition to the regular patrol division.

BROWN COMMENTED that there would be three officers at the Diablo Valley College Dance; 12 officers at the Acalanes football game; eight officers at the San Ramon football game and dance and additional units will be dispatched from the Central County Substation of the Sheriff's Office in Lafayette for that area.

Acting Undersheriff Lee Gallimore, warned that the deputies and reserves would be "blue-nosed" and would not stand for any nonsense or vandalism regardless of popular traditions regarding Halloween.

"We will enforce the curfew law to the hilt, Gallimore said.

BROWN ALERTED residents to the fact that due to the lack of rain, grass areas are critical fire areas and that fireworks are prohibited.

"We want everybody to have a good time tonight, but we don't want any property damaged or anyone injured," Brown concluded.

Elderly Gal, Fur Muff Do Disappear Act

An elderly woman who was seen "looking at dresses and holding them up to the light" is suspected of making off with a $90 leopard fur muff from Grodin's of the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek.

The theft occurred last Saturday afternoon. The muff was on display in the Grodin's window. After the elderly woman had left, it was missing from the show window.

The suspect is in her late 50's, about 5 feet, 5 inches tall, weighing about 155 pounds. She wore a full length white winter coat.

Church Guild Luncheon Meeting Is Postponed

The General Guild luncheon of the Orinda Community Church which is usually held the first Tuesday of each month has been postponed to the third Tuesday, November 18, because of Election day on the 4th and Veterans Day on the 11th. The program will be a book review by Mrs. Stuart LeRoy Anderson.

Fluoridation Legislation Is Pushed

Looking forward to an election by which the residents of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, may decide if they want fluoridation of their water, district directors will support necessary legislation in the 1959 sessions of the State Assembly and Senate.

The directors last week approved a policy statement submitted to them by Dr. Henrik Blum, Contra Costa County health officer; Dr. James Malcolm, Alameda County health officer, and

Dr. Alvin Leonard, Berkeley health officer.

The statement supported the initiation of new legislation which would make legally certain a water company's right to fluoridate water on approval of the California Board of Health, and would allow the calling of a special election.

SUCH LEGISLATION was passed by the California Assembly, 42-24, in 1955, but the California Senate committee assigned to study the bill held out for a two-thirds majority requirement, in the event of an election. Dr. Zachary Stadt of the County Health Department explained, this week, "Thus, the bill did not become law."

EBMUD President Louis Breuner said, "Since opinions on the merits of fluoridation are so divergent, it seems fair to allow the people who will be drinking fluoridated water the chance to decide whether they want it."

"This can, of course, best be determined by placing the matter before the voters."

The legislation which the District Board of Directors is prepared to support will authorize such an election and permit the district to fluoridate its water supply if the majority of the voters express themselves in favor of fluoridation," he said.

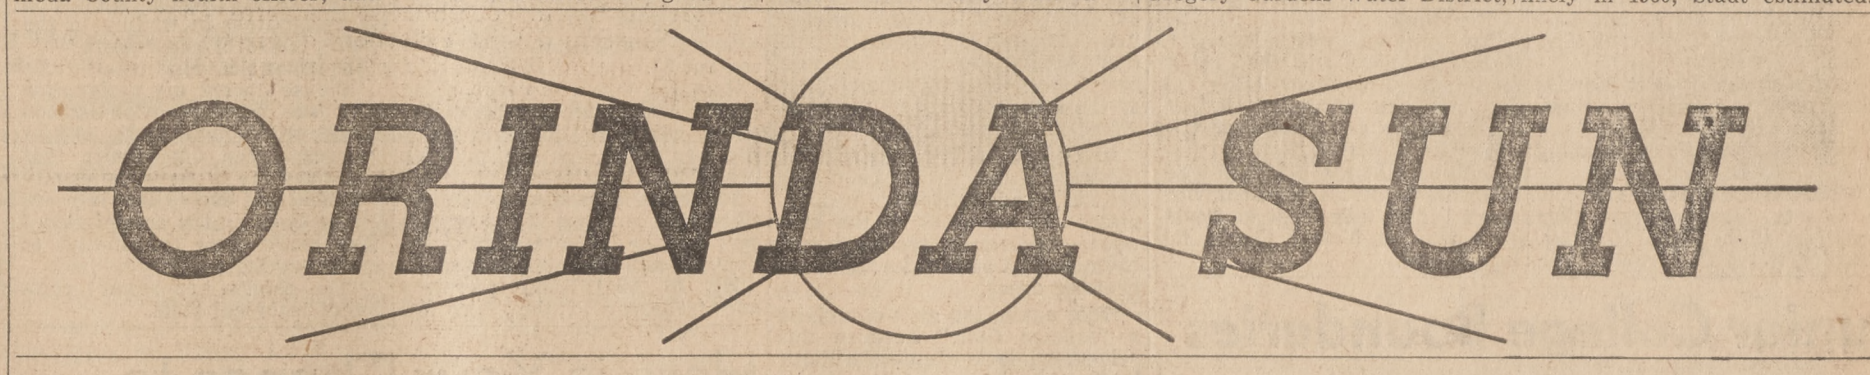

IN CONTRA Costa County, Gregory Gardens in Pleasant Hill was polled in 1955 by the Gregory Gardens Water District, and fluoridation was adopted.

In 1952, The Antioch City Council voted for fluoridation of the city's water supply, and the new procedure has been in effect for more than five years.

Several studies of the comparative condition of children and adults with permanent teeth have been made in Antioch.

If the state legislative groups do pass a law, the election in Contra Costa and Alameda Counties may be held in 1959, or more likely in 1960, Stadt estimated.

Tremendous Turnout Seen Tuesday General Election

Some 78,635 registered voters in the second and third supervisorial districts will go to 313 polling places Tuesday to cast votes in one of the most highly controversial elections in State history.

County election officials predict the largest voter turnout in county history considering the total of registered residents in the county, a total of 180,410.

THE FIRST Supervisorial District, Richmond and surrounding area, still has the highest percentage of population with its 74,802 voters. The Third Supervisorial District comes in second with 54,245.

Third largest district is the second with its 24,390 and the fourth and fifth districts follow in that order with 13,905 and 13,068.

Largest number of Central Contra Costa precincts is in the Concord area with 103. This figure gives a total of individual precincts, but does not include sub-precincts which have been created since the June primaries.

IN THE CENTRAL county area there have been 78 precincts created since the primary elections. Current precinct totals in the Second Supervisorial District are as follows:

Orinda, 32; Lafayette, 38; St. Mary's, 1; Moraga, 2; Canyon, 1.

The total number of precincts in the central county area of the third district is:

PACHECO, 29 (Of the 29 Pacheco precincts, 27 are in the Pleasant Hill area, south of Gold Links Road); Pleasant Hill, 21; Walnut Creek, 50; Saranap, 19; Alamo, 17; Concord, 103.

Commuters Group Gives Report On Bus Turn-Outs

At a special meeting Tuesday evening in Acalanes High School, the directors of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association completed their study of a report by the California Public Utilities Commission on bus turn-outs and stops to be observed by Greyhound or the Two County Transit District upon completion of the freeway connections now under construction on Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

The report was compiled by the Traffic Engineering Division of the California Public Utilities Commission as a result of conferences with Pacific Greyhound, The State Division of Highways, Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and the Commuters Association.

Its objective is to assure provision for bus turn-outs for a route which will utilize both freeway and local roads.

UNDER A PLAN felt to be acceptable to the majority of commuters which will provide a sufficient number of stops and permit as much use of the freeway as possible to effect a reduction in running time, the following turn-outs were recommended:

Charles Hill, east and west, Acalanes Valley, east, and Upper Happy Valley, west.

Beyond Acalanes Valley east-bound local buses would leave the freeway to run via Lafayette to the Pleasant Hill Interchange and Walnut Creek with a stop at Boulevard Way.

Express buses would make their first stop at Boulevard Way or Geary Road, remaining on the freeway.

LOCAL BUSES would return to the freeway after leaving Walnut Creek, making stops at Geary Road and Monument with all service beyond that point of local operation.

The following officers and directors were elected to fill vacancies left by directors whose two year term expires this month: Dudley W. Thickens, Lafayette, president; Leroy Sowers, Lafayette, vice-president; Ester M. Anderson, Alamo, secretary; Ray McNairy, Lafayette, treasurer; directors, Joseph Finke, Lafayette, Carroll Wright, Walnut Creek, Charles E. Keathley, Lafayette, A. T. Trevillyan, Concord, Bennet K. Tow, Lafayette, and Robert A. Barton, Lafayette.

Hearing on Pine Grove Rezoning Is Postponed

Expected arguments over rezoning of the Pine Grove tract failed to materialize at Tuesday night's meeting of the County Planning Commission when a representative of Associated Investment Company, owner of the property, failed to appear.

The firm has asked that the zoning classification be changed from Administrative Offices to Multiple Family, which would permit the erection of an apartment house.

The commission postponed the hearing to November 12 to give the company a chance to present its arguments.

ARTHUR M. FLINT, president of the Orinda Association, which opposes the change of zoning, said he was puzzled over failure of Associated Investment to have a representative at the hearing it had requested.

"When a previous owner of the tract dropped a similar request last February, he put in an appearance at the hearing," Flint pointed out.

Edward Martin, president of the investment company, was reported by his office to be out of town, and no other member of the firm was available for comment.

Dr. Ralph C. Hall, vice president of the Orinda Association, presented commissioners with a letter from the association asking that no zoning change be made until the association has prepared a general plan for Orinda.

THE ASSOCIATION'S letter follows:

"You have before you for consideration an application to rezone the so called Pine Grove property in Orinda from its present A-O to multiple family.

"The Pine Grove is a property prominently located in the heart of Orinda, and has been a center of much controversy over the past few years.

"The history of this 10.89 acres certainly should be familiar to the members of your commission and the planning department staff.

"For reasons involving both its prominent location and its history what happens to Pine Grove is of vital importance to the Orinda community.

Recognizing these factors, the Board of Directors of the Orinda Association, acting on the recommendation of its planning committee, opposes any zoning change for the Pine Grove property until a general plan has been prepared and adopted for the entire Orinda Crossroads area.

"We believe it impossible to make an intelligent decision as to the best use of this land without thorough and careful consideration of probable future uses for surrounding areas.

"The directors of the association believe this is an excellent example of the importance of relating zoning and planning.

"Hearing on an Orinda general plan were held by your commission in 1955, but no action was taken to approve the plan.

"NO REVISION to the Orinda general plan have been submitted for the commission's consideration since that time. The association strongly urges your commission to take no action on the zoning in the Crossroads area until a general plan has been prepared.

"This is the second application for rezoning of this property to be filed in 1958. The association expressed its opposition to MRA zoning in February of this year.

"That applicant withdrew the application for rezoning prior to a hearing and it was immediately after this action that the property was sold to its present owner."

Trustees Elected To Library Board

Two new trustees of the Orinda Library Board were elected this week.

They are Mrs. Clay H. Sorrick and William Fleeger. Dr. Lloyd L. Farrar was named as an honorary member.

Brown was re-elected as president, Fleeger was named secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. E. F. Wilford, vice president.

Other members of the board are George F. Hartzell, Mrs. John L. Madison, and Mrs. C. V. Scarth. Ernest L. Spiegel is legal counsel and Mrs. Donald P. Krotz an honorary member.

Mrs. Roger Stark of the Orinda Garden Club discussed plans for landscaping the new Orinda Library, to be dedicated November.

Charles B. Collins of the firm of Aitken and Collins, architects, explained architectural details of the new building.

Brown, Young, Orin Go Round, Round and Round

The race for sheriff of Contra Costa County exploded again this week with statements being hurled by Walter Young, candidate; Harry Brown, sheriff, and Ron Orin, Concord police chief.

The melee started when Young announced that he would seek the appointment of Orin to the now vacant position of undersheriff in Contra Costa if elected.

ORIN ANSWERED from the International Chief of Police Convention in Miami Beach that he wasn't interested and Brown said "... poor Young."

In a press statement Young supported his announcement that he would consider a provisional appointment of Orin as acting undersheriff by noting he would "definitely consider Orin for the job."

Young pointed out that Orin's "organization of the Concord Police Department into one of the most efficient and well managed in the state is widely recognized and his fine showing in the primary election is further evidence of his ability."

ORIN HAD this to say: "I am amazed that a public announcement has been made to the effect that I may be appointed as undersheriff should Young be successful in his bid to unseat the sheriff of Contra Costa County Tuesday.

"This comes as a complete surprise, as at no time has such a position been offered, considered, or even discussed by myself and either candidate."

"I am not in the slightest degree interested in such an appointment, nor am I interested in any position other than that which I am honored to hold as chief of police of the City of Concord."

BROWN SIMPLY said: "Young is just like the bride left waiting at the altar. He picked his man, but the bridegroom just isn't interested ... poor Young."

Association Gives Trees For Village Bypass Highway

Plans of the Orinda Beautification Committee, to improve the appearance of the community got off to a good start with the decision of Orinda Association directors to donate 2000 seedlings to the project.

Mrs. Paul L. Pollaczek, committee chairman, said the trees will be planted along the Orinda Village Bypass.

"They will not only help to make the area more beautiful, but help to control erosion," Mrs. Pollaczek said.

Dr. Ralph Hall, association vice president, planned to confer with William Penn Mott, Jr., Oakland park superintendent and adviser to the committee, on the most desirable type of tree to plant.

Little Girls Set Pace In Fashion

Everywhere in fashion, the "young look" is news, and the result is that little girls, who have the tremendous advantage of not only looking but being young, are setting the fashion pace for fads.

In recent seasons, girls' wear has copied adult fashions, but fall '58 reverses the process, and the grown-ups copy the girls.

THIS IS APPARENT in the way a girls' favorite, the pyramid coat, has evolved into the trapeze-line coat. And the same thing is true of high-waisted trapeze dresses, fitted through the shoulders and then flaring out in a manner reminiscent of such young classics as the smock dress and the high-yoked, full-skirted dress.

Along with their enthusiasm for the trapeze line in both coats and dresses, grade-school-age fashion-plates are devotees of the chemise — especially the low-belted chemise coat and the low-flounced chemise dress.

Here again, the girls can claim a "fashion first," because this schoolgirl look chemise with its long, easy lines and low-placed pleats or flounce, also appears in adult wear and derives from children's styles of 1910.

Girls' separates, whether meant to mix or to match, whether chemise or trapeze in looks, share the basic idea that blouses, and sweaters, too, are to be worn outside their skirts, not tucked in.

Long and easy or "bloused" blouses and sweaters appear with slim, pleated or flounced skirts, while putting trapeze tops pair up with trapeze skirts.

An alternative silhouette for girls consists of traditional dresses and coats, with natural waistlines and full skirts.

Orinda Highlands Assn. Names McCauley Head

At a recent meeting held at the home of John D. Van Dyne, outgoing president, the Lake Orinda Highlands Improvement Association elected new officers for the coming year.

The new president is Bruce G. McCauley, executive vice president of a Berkeley manufacturing company.

According to McCauley, the major projects established by the association for vigorous effort this year are: The elimination of dangerous, narrow curves on El Toyonal; the provision of shelters for school children awaiting the school bus, and an expansion and revitalization of the association's membership.

The organization represents the rapidly growing residential area from the upper intersection of El Toyonal and Loma Vista all the way up the west side of the Orinda hill to the county line at Grizzly Peak Boulevard.

McCauley, a resident of the area for seven years, said, "The Lake Orinda Highlands Improvement Association has only one major purpose, namely, service to the community. We can best serve that purpose if all residents of the area join the organization and support it both actively and financially."

Other new officers are Henry W. Borbridge, vice president; Mrs. Burton Brody, secretary-treasurer; and Hal Mead and Jerry G. Balas, members of the board of directors. Dr. Leonard is the representative of the association on the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association.

$75,000 Sales Tax Monies To Be Used in Clearance

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors adopted a new maintenance policy for secondary and minor channels to speed up work before the winter rains.

In a detailed program, the policy provides for continuation of the present spraying program to reduce the growth of vegetation in all channels.

IN ADDITION to this function, the county will remove fallen trees and log jams in major channels upon the orders of the supervisors, if the circumstances warrant county intervention.

This is as far as the county will go toward flood control. The policy takes the position that all other major drainage channels and conduits must be maintained from tax funds raised within flood control zones and sub-zones of the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

THE SUPERVISORS authorized use of $75,000 of sales tax revenue for the flood district for this maintenance of secondary and minor channels and conduits.

The responsibility for various parts of policy was placed on the Flood Control District. This district must plan and estimate costs and the supervisors will decide whether the work will be done by the county public works department or by contractors.

THE PUBLIC WORKS department and the county administrator will recommend to the supervisors on which course to take.

To Open Youth Concert Series

The Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts will present a concert series designed for the family next year.

Through popular demand, for the fourth year the world-famous San Francisco Symphony Orchestra will begin the series on January 25.

On March 1, the Company of the Golden Hind will present a Mozart Comic Opera, and the Roger Wagner Choral will perform on April 5.

Because the concert season was a success last year, and because so many youth in this area are studying instrumental music in the schools, the Board of Directors of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts will present a concert band as a bonus program for season ticket holders.

It will be the Sixth Army Band. As in the past, no single admissions will be sold.

The content, the price, the place and the time of the concerts are all planned for family enjoyment.

The program will give a variety of fine music for only $3.50 a season ticket for both adults and students.

The concerts are at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday afternoons and are one hour long.

Ticket sales will start January 5.

However, orders for Christmas gifts may be made before Christmas.

For further information, call Mrs. Charles F. B. Price, Jr. or write to Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts at Post Office Box 83, Walnut Creek.

Safeway Tells Of Plan To Purchase Clark's Market

Final plans have been made for Safeway to enter the Rheem Shopping Center in Rheem and to take over the operation of Clark's Market. It was jointly announced today by Quentin Reynolds, Safeway Division manager, Donald Rheem, and Jack and Chester Clark.

The amount of the proposed purchase price was not disclosed.

"We are especially pleased with Safeway's plan to continue the employment of our fine employees, and to give them every possibility for promotion opportunity within the Safeway organization," the Clark brothers stated.

IT IS PLANNED that the transfer of the store shall become effective November 3, and reopen as a Safeway supermarket on November 6. From November 2 through November 5 the store will be closed.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, after the store is officially taken over, Safeway training instructors and other company executives will work with the Clark personnel to acquaint them with Safeway operating practices.

Speaking on behalf of the Rheem Shopping Center, owner Donald Rheem expressed his pleasure at having Safeway enter into a long-term agreement to operate the supermarket at his center.

"It is gratifying that Safeway has sufficient confidence in the future of this area to want to operate a supermarket at Rheem Shopping Center."

SINCE THE CLARK brothers wish to dispose of their store, we are most pleased that Safeway has taken over the operation. We are sure they will enjoy the same success and good relations as prevailed with the Clark brothers," Rheem added.

When the supermarket opens on November 6, as a Safeway operation, it will have many of the familiar Safeway brands, as well as a new meat operation under Safeway's quality meat program featuring USDA choice meats and beef and lamb.

The store will be supplied from the Safeway warehouses and plants in the Bay area as well as by other suppliers, providing direct delivery to Safeway Stores.

The new store will be under the supervision of Cliff Jensen, district manager for Safeway for the stores in the Berkeley, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill area.

The book has been compiled by the school administration, staff and the Educational Advisory Council for the Orinda district, which is made up of two parent councils of the schools and special services and programs.

The purpose of the book is to improve communication between school and parent and will state items of general information about the schools, the financial structure of the district, explain how the tax dollar is divided, the type of education offered, the curriculum of the schools and special services and programs.

Birthday Ball Set By Marines

East Bay Marine Corps Reserve will join the world-wide celebration of the 183rd birthday of the Corps with a birthday ball November 8 at El Nido Rancho, Lafayette.

The event is sponsored by Volunteer Training Unit 12-29 of Walnut Creek, which held last year's first such East Bay celebration. Traditionally, around the world unless they are engaged in combat, Marines toast the birthday of their Corps on November 10, 1775, and rededicate themselves to the service of their country.

Although invitations have gone out for members of VTU 12-29 and their guests, we want all other reserve and retired Marines in the area to know they will be welcome to join us on this special occasion," said Lt. Col. George Madsen, 1521 Brooks Street, Walnut Creek, the unit commanding officer.

He said reservations should be made prior to November 1 with Major Marjorie Woolman, 3332 Lucille Lane, Lafayette.

Lt. Col. Laurence L. Scott, 2120 Hillview Drive, Walnut Creek, is program chairman. He said dinner at 8 p.m. would be followed by the reading of the birthday message which reminds Marines of the sacrifices of those who have gone before and of the high honor the Corps must uphold.

Then, to music of the Marine Corps Hymn, four officers in dress blue will escort in the birthday cake. It will be cut with a Mameluke sword from ancient Tripoli and the first two pieces of cake will go to the oldest and youngest Marine present.

Dancing will follow.

Bewitched, Bothered & Be Home . . .

Next to Christmas, today's the day. Tonight's the night. The Big Holiday for the kiddies. When the witches & spooks in their gruesome get-ups rake in their big take of candy & cupeakes.

The doorbells will be ringing late, this being Friday, no school tomorrow, and you can expect to be both bothered & bewildered by the amazing & endless procession of progeny appearing on your doorstep.

YOU NEVER KNEW so MANY kids lived in the neighborhood? They don't! But they get bored begging in their own block and each year map out strategy in a new territory. Especially if you're a Big Treat Giver. The word gets around. Sort of a junior underground. Like the man who gave away Shasta Sodas one year. They had him numbered. His doorbell may STILL be ringing. Oh, those feverish little fistfults. Hope you're prepared with PLENTY!

HALLOWE'EN is just a preview of Things To Come. It's down to the Dime Store to mask the moppets, to costume the kids. To outfit, say, 3 children, you're lucky if you get change back from a fiver. Not to mention the decorations. A few paper owls & cats to paste on the window, to parade around the punch bowl.

Then there are the Treats of course. This has become The Major Expense. Unless you're True Genius like one lady we know who gives old toys & comic books instead. We must also have pumpkins. One apiece. Ever hear of 3 kids carving one (1) pumpkin together? The scrapping would have YOU carving them!

The Goblins 'At Getcha . . .

THINGS WEREN'T SO FANCY back in the Old Days. We talked Mother out of an old sheet. Then we cut a couple of holes in it to see out of and paraded up & down the street for a little trick & treating. Some of the kids, the bolder boys, filled a stocking w/ flour. And if no treat was forthcoming, oh, how the flour flew out of that sock! Made a mighty mess out of the front porch and got the ladies, oh, so mad!

If you were real good, maybe you got a Mickey Mouse outfit or went as Red Riding Hood. But whoever heard of Purple People Eaters, Martians, & Two-headed Monsters? We always turned out the lights and read "Little Orphan Annie" and told ghost stories, ducked for apples and had a taffy pull. Mother always used the pumpkin to make a spicy-scented pie and does ANYONE do THAT anymore?

THESE GHOULISH THINGS . . . At one party, there'll be a real witch—w/ a cackle to her voice, a crackle to her crinoline, and smoke (dry ice) rising from the black caldron she'll be stirring. The Old Crone's earthly remains, to be passed among the brave party-goers, sound Spine-Tingling, but boy, the kids love that stuff. For the witch's eyes, Ooops, there'll be green olives dipped in sticky egg white, (soggy small marshmallows, wet, are good, too!)

A DAMP SPONGE or a fresh beef kidney from the butchers' brings ghoulish screams of glee, and a bowlful of wet noodles always rates a shrill shriek or two, esp. if you're blindfolded. Leather gloves packed to the fingertips w/ flour & refrigerated till icy cold, make a perfectly marvelous witches' hand. If you can STAND such things! If you hate to miss all the fun, tonight's the ONE night you can join the tribe, incognito, masked & costumed, and no one will know the difference. The kids can keep a Secret. Happy Whooooing!

Shoes & Rice & Everything Nice!

Wedding Bells ring out tomorrow for Christine Winters who'll become Mrs. William Robert Dawdy. Following vows to be recited at a home ceremony at the Bonita Lane residence of her mother Mrs. Robert Chalmers Winters, wedding guests will adjourn to the Ernest Spiegl home on La Espiral for Congratulatory Toasts. The benedict's family, the Marvin Dawdys, arrived from Tucson just today.

THE LAURENCE CLAYTON RODGERS (Betty Broderick) are being facilitated on their Sept. 27 marriage in Portland . . . A Honey-moon for them at Timberline Lodge, Mt. Hood . . . Now back to being domestic, they've bought a new house, will move to a Crestview Dr. address mid-November.

COUNTRY CLOTHESLINE . . . Counterspiied at the Crossroads, Dorothy Dunn looking very Deborah Kerrish in an orange & white checked shirtmaker dress over which, an orange sherbet-shaded cardigan, the pretty casual outfit enhanced by her red hair, her Yardley Look!

Irene MacDonald, bound for SOMEPLACE very dressed-up and looking like a preview of Xmas or someone from Santa Land in a Christmas-red velvet suit, mink-collared, a pert red matching head-hugging hat.

Gail Smith can get away w/ 'em—not many of us can—meaning those long leotard thingamabobs, HERS in black & sported w/ charcoal grey bermudas, sweater & aunts car coat in the Rheem Theater lobby the other night. The tall lovely Orinda girl, currently an L. Magnificent Model in the SFSStore, has passed PanAm Stewardess exams & will start her cloud-hopping in January.

Hobnobbing with the Hai Polloi

THE INTERNAT'L FILM FESTIVAL in SF next wk. promises to be a Very Plush Event. And participating in it, the Orinda Mills Club members who are joining Bay Area Mills Alumni to hostess & enjoy the English Entry due on screen at the Metro Theatre Nov. 5. Going from here, a group to incl. Lid & Kirk Miles, the Barclay Simpsons, Frank Wrights, John Goodeens, Wayland Cummings, Raymond Shabets, the Ben Randalls.

MORE . . . Russ & Ruth Gilwee, the Harold Booths, Jerry Werlins, Stu Hendersons are planning to attend the film showing, to later hobnob w/ the Hollywood Hoipolloi at a post-theater party in the Palace Corner of the Sheraton-Pa.

AS A BENEFIT FOR THE THERAPY CENTER, the Orioles Doubles-Bridge session last Fri. aft. & eve. at the Tappan Lane home of the J. Milton Davies . . . Going up the walk to the pretty yellow provincial house, a foursome taking time out from their golfing game—Ruby Raab, Marceline Martin, Vivian Campbell and Margaret Louis, ALL guests of Ruth Sergeant who did hostess duties during the afternoon . . . Sabena Clearman w/ a group . . . Molly Blue, Jean Dana coupled w/ Phyllis at Phyllis' home & hearing about her recent European peregrinations. Marian Thompson telling that she & Addie would be Tahoe-bound for the wknd. to close up their summer place.

GLIMPSED w/ Liz Folliard, Helen Rodwell, Rene Worthington, Hazel Frolich & Pauline Booth another due. Reva Hart winning the BIG Prize, a vibrating pillow, just the thing for tried bridge players . . . She showing the prize to her table—Rene Kennedy, Doris Crockett and Marie Bacon who enjoyed a 3-D view of Sleepy Hollow & hills beyond from their table in the outside Lanai room.

IN THE P.M. . . . Bridge predominated, the Robert Cases completing a table w/ the Albert Mohrs . . . The surprise of the nite—that the A. M. Ram says, Oakland guests of the hostess Fran Davies (they had filled in last minute) found the trip out here quite worth it. They went home w/ not one, but THREE prizes! The card game of SAMBA played by a trio of couples incl. the aforementioned Ramseys, the Jr. Earl Houstons and the host & hostess.

A lively session of Poker took place among the John Dorrns, Helen & Jim Buxton, erstwhile Orindans now residing in Oakland, and Dorothy & Jack Stahl. Hostess Members Phyllis Stuart, Eva Parker, sans spouses, took care of the guests' coffee, dessert & drinks here, ditto Harper Wright, Oletta Stanley who had fun looking over all the card players' shoulders.

DUSK is setting . . . Time to dust off our brooms, dear! And we're off!

WORK BEGAN last week on paving and repair of six miles of road in the Hacienda Homes subdivision. On hand for start of work were, from left, Warren Case and Jack Marchetti of Ransome Company, who hold contract for project; William A. Passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (6:18): "To suppose that God forgives or punishes sin according as His mercy is sought or unsought, is to misunderstand Love and to make prayer the safety-valve for wrong-doing."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:7): "Let Israel hope in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy, and with his is plenteous redemption."

The only one unable to attend was sister Connie Ahlstrom, who is now in the East. The one who stole the show was brother Jim's miniature poodle puppy Spooky, a tiny bit of fluffy white.

Stunning Models, Styles, Highlight Show

By JEAN MCGUIRE

Most of you ladies, and even a few gentlemen here and there, have witnessed a fashion show or two. But certainly you would never surmise from the smooth polished way it runs its course, what a great deal of preparation and frenzied activity go into it.

A good case in point was the fabulous fashion parade put on by the Heidi Chapter of the Childrens Home Society. The event was held at the Castlewood Country Club as the chapter's tenth annual benefit.

THE TASK OF organizing the show was ably performed by Mrs. J. L. Hicks, general chairman and Mrs. J. W. Barnette, both of Lafayette.

Their committees included, from Lafayette, Mesdames A. H. Young, tickets and reservations; R. H. Lockey, seating; G. W. Meyers, models; E. M. Matson, decorations; C. J. Morrill, program; T. J. Clark, publicity; L. A. Frank, benefit.

Mesdames T. H. Lassagne, procurement; I. D. Miller, surprise gifts, and O. R. Hayes of Danville, surprise gifts.

The proceedings began with a luncheon for the guests, served on tables decorated with hundreds of dolls and tiny mirrors, the theme being "Thru the Looking Glass."

A gorgeous Norwegian blue fox stole from George Benioff was given to Mrs. A. Bignami of Lafayette, and the Trefari jewelry set from Otto E. Frank, went to Mrs. Edith Hayes, also of Lafayette.

SAKS FIFTH AVENUE commentator, Mrs. Marilyn Wissing Scott, gave a brief summary of the styling changes of today, namely, hemlines are up, and the empire (om-peer) line is best this year.

As Ernest Fodor of Walnut Creek supplied background piano selections, the show began. First to come down the long carpeted runway was little "Heidi," portrayed enchantingly by Sarah Newcomb of Walnut Creek. Sarah, by the way, was the perfect choice for the part. She is the first baby adopted through the chapter to ever be the Heidi theme girl.

Following her, came a procession of some of the most beautiful clothes ever seen — breathtaking formals, mostly in satins and chiffons, many featuring the new "Bubble Skirt."

SMART SUITS of conventional fabric, and a few in the bulky, furry type materials with the ballooning jackets and straight shorter skirts. Cocktail dresses of silks and crepes in the still popular trapeze, and the ever popular sheath.

Filmy pegnoirs and negligees—one in particular drew many envied looks, done in a soft pink nylon, it was covered from neck to toe with tiny sparkles.

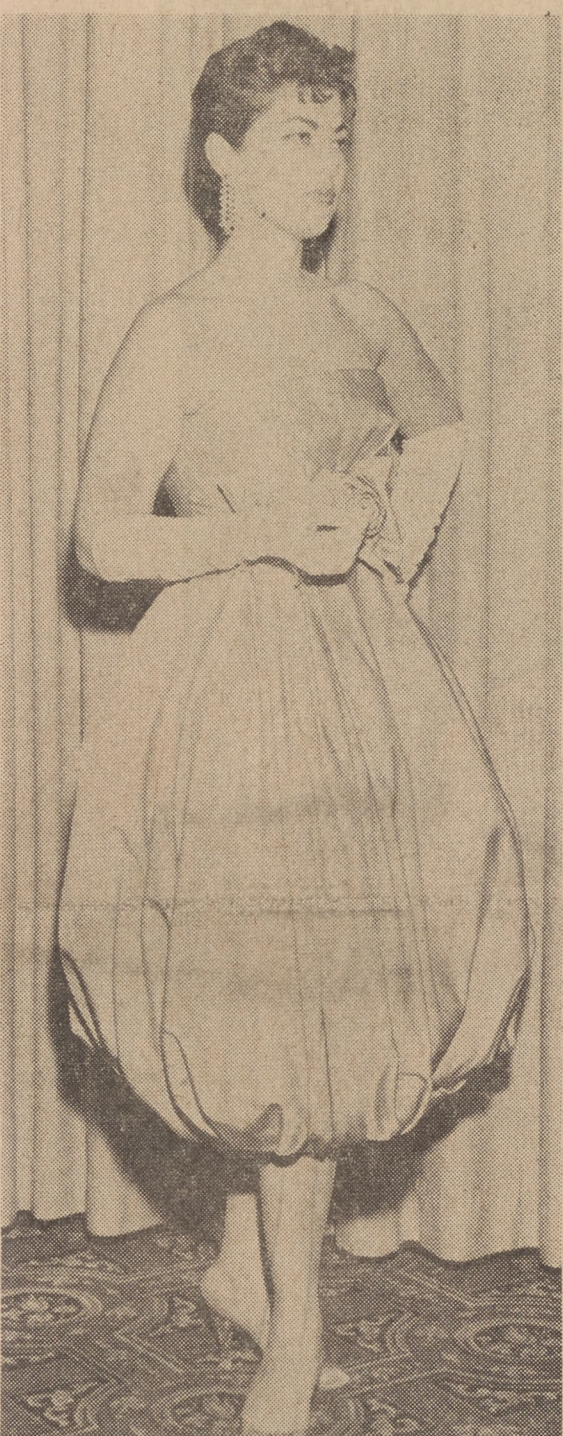

The lounging outfits were shown—most popular being one consisting of long tight blue satin pants, topped by a trapeze line velvet jacket swirled in shades of blue, black and white with a tiny ruffled petticoat under it to make it billow.

Much credit must be given to Mrs. Elaine Benioff Untermyer, Fashion Coordinator for Saks Fifth Avenue. Her flair for high style and combining clothes and colors is without equal.

THE LOVELY MODELS included, from Walnut Creek, Mesdames Jack Campbell, K. T. Goepfert Jr., and James Newcomb.

From Orinda, Mesdames Bernard Ginsburg, Calvin Hagstrom and Phillip Muschied. From Lafayette, Mesdames Walter Markstein, Don Thompson and Robert Pierson.

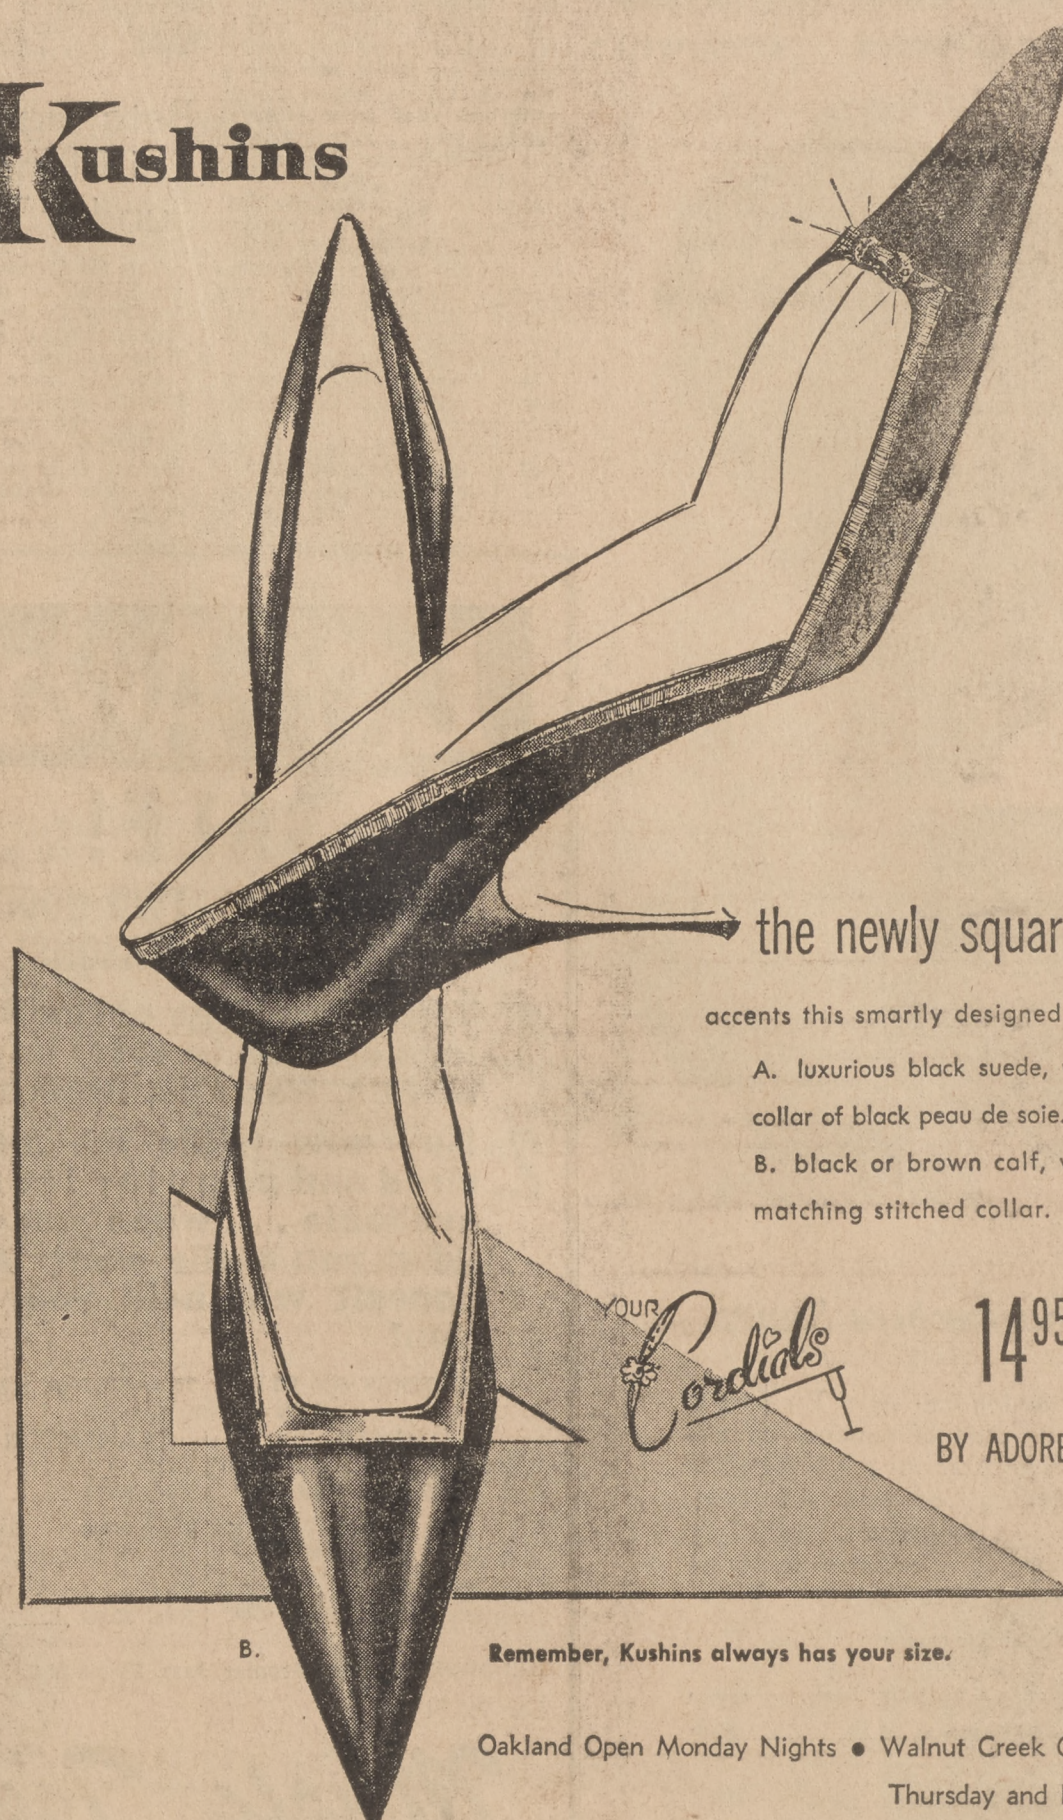

Mrs. Wadsworth White of Danville, and Mrs. James B. McGuire of Concord.

Flower Headdress Ball
Costumes, Gowns Lovely

As Queen of the Pacific, lovely Mrs. Lloyd R. Bradhoff of Danville reigned at Children's Hospital of the East Bay's annual Flower Headdress Ball Saturday in a gown of white tulle over net, an Emma Domb creation. Trapeze-styled, the back panel swept from the shoulder line to a magnificent train. Rhinestones fashioned the narrow shoulder straps and studded the bodice of the gown. A cascade design of the same brilliance embellished the skirt.

Mrs. Victor Graber of Orinda, second in the contest, played her first lady in waiting to the queen role in a gorgeous Japanese wedding kimono, white and gold with brilliantly-hued flowers highlighting Barbara's dark beauty.

AFTER THE PAGEANT, the "Princess of Japan" returned to the ball in a cocktail-length Dior original which she had brought home from Paris on her recent trip abroad. Of lush melon chiffon, the dress was designed with sculptured folds molding the bodice and a voluminous bouffant skirt, hemmed 18 inches deep and swirled in harem effect.

An underskirt of brilliant red underdressed the skirt. Flowing as she danced, the cloud of scarf draped from Barbara's gown matched the melon of her dress and was lined in the same vivid red as the skirt. Lustrous pearl earrings and a double strand of pearls were her choice of jewels.

A tanned and sparkling Princess of Ball was Mrs. David Brunson of Orinda, whose costume consisted of a black bodice, the neckline and sleeve-edges heavily studded with gold and emeralds, and a gold and black brocade sarong skirt.

MRS. BRUNSON rejoined her party at the ball wearing a royal blue gown, a short model of chiffon with rhinestone-studded bodice, dipping from a high neckline at front to a low V in back.

Princess from the Philippine Islands was Mrs. David E. Fink of Lafayette, whose court dress was of exquisite pina cloth, designed with dainty butterfly sleeves, gorgeously embroidered, and a skirt falling to the traditional ruffled train.

Her duties as chairman of the pageant done, Pat donned a black crepe sheath, fashionably short, the bodice of black Chantilly lace over nude taffeta gathered to a high Empire waistline, defined below the bustline with a ribbon inset of Paris pink satin. Sleeveless, the dress was completely backless, straight-across in front. Mrs. Fink wore rhinestone and pearl drop earrings, and bracelet of matching stones.

MRS. OWEN OWENS of Orinda, as the Princess of Siam, wore a strapless bodice of coral with a skirt of rich silk panels, multicolored. With her court dress, the "princess" wore a magnificent wide jeweled collar and headdress, into which were tucked dainty flowers.

An Empire model of champagne lace—tiers and tiers of it—was Mrs. Owens' choice for dancing after the pageant. Ballerina length, the skirt flared very full. The ribbon fashioning the flat bow which accented the Empire line was drawn back into the inset which edged the very low back of Lois' gown.

As the Princess of Java, Mrs. E. P. "Ted" Sawyer of Lafayette donned the traditional kabaya, or jacket, and batik kain, or skirt. The kabaya was of gold and silver, gray silk brocade, and beneath it, the bodice of hand-tied dyed rust red silk was tied sash fashion. This "princess" carried a native fan of buffalo hide, gold trimmed.

JOINING HER FRIENDS later for the ball, Mrs. Sawyer wore a Harvey Berin model, ballerina length, of white poodle cloth, the bodice heavily encrusted with crystal, pearls and iridescent cut beads. Hundreds of little gores fashioned the skirt, and the deep scoop décolletage of the gown's neckline framed Anne's magnificent pearls to perfection.

Mrs. Heber H. Smith, Jr., of Orinda was a radiant Princess from India in a pale blue sari, embroidered with gold and thread. Barbara wore authentic hand-hammered brass jewelry from the land she represented.

Mrs. Smith's gown for the ball was of off-white brocade, the leaf design of pale aqua. Dipping to a V both front and back, the neckline was finished in front with a large bow. Perfect for dancing was Barbara's wide, flaring skirt.

Mrs. Olson Takes Prize

Judged the most beautiful flower headdresses Saturday night at Children's Hospital of the East Bay's Flower Headdress Ball were Mrs. Roger C. Olson's "Burmese Spire," Mrs. John O. Rosefield's "Japanese Fans," and Mrs. H. B. Turman Jr.'s "Bells of Ireland."

Maile Olson of Orinda, who is chairman of Cedar Jr. Branch, crowned her golden hair with a just-as-golden temple tower, patterned after color pictures she had seen in a recent issue of a national news photo magazine, Life.

Made of egg crates, pie tins, cardboard, upright corsage pins, daughter Kristin's bracelet, and tiny mauve chrysanthemums, "Burmese Spire" was topped with a spiked seed pod, the whole spectacular snire effect gilded gleaming gold.

Mrs. Olson's ballgown was of mauve satin, its floor-length skirt very full.

Proceeds from the ball, as well as from the queen-of-the-ball contest which preceded it, benefit Children's Hospital

Sorority's Season Starts With Dinner

The fall social season for alumnae of Alpha Xi Delta sorority began with a progressive dinner held in Walnut Creek Saturday night.

The Diablo Valley members and their husbands congregated at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith on Van Cleave Lane, Walnut Creek, where cocktails and hors d'oeuvres were served.

The group then proceeded to the Orinda Oakwood Drive estate of Mr. and Mrs. John Dorr where the salad and entree courses were served in the candlelit dining room and on the adjacent patios.

The Doors will soon be moving to Southern California and the active couple will be missed by their friends in this area. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chance hosted the dessert course at their home in Lafayette, after which the guests enjoyed dancing by the fireplace.

Mrs. Chance headed the working dinner committee which also included Mesdames Carter Miles, John Dorr, Robert Smith, Richard Melrose, Robert Gammon, Glenn Vivrette, Marechal Duncan, H. D. Burkhard, Theodore Newman and William Bolee.

The Alpha Xi Deltas earlier this month held a very successful Christmas toy party at the home of Mrs. Glenn Vivrette of Lafayette.

'Carousel' Is Juniors' Dance Theme

The Junior Women's Club of Walnut Creek has planned to begin the Fall season with a dance on November 8, at the Elks Club, Walnut Creek.

The theme is "Carousel." One end of the dance floor will have a miniature merry-go-round with almost life-size papier-mache animals.

Dancing is scheduled from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. to the music of Al Lekse and his band with a buffet supper served in the downstairs dining area at midnight.

The proceeds of the dance will fund to help furnish the child into the club's philanthropy dren's room at the new and long-awaited Walnut Creek Public Library to be built soon.

Mrs. Harry Hemstark, Finance Chairman and her committee, Mrs. Edwin Robinson and Mrs. Robert Curtis have planned the evening. Mrs. Albert Taylor, Crafts Chairman, is in charge of decorations.

Club members are also busy in the field of philanthropy with a successful "School for Baby-Sitters" and are collecting canned goods to be contributed to the Christmas Bureau in Walnut Creek which will distribute baskets to needy families at Christmas.

The Juniors are also donating "White Elephants" for the Lynn Training Center for Teen-Agers and Adults, Council for the Retarded, for their bazaar.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

The ladies of St. Perpetua's Women's Guild and their guests enjoyed a completely beautiful and successful day earlier in the month when they gathered at the Thomas J. Moran's "Seven Oaks Ranch".

A delicious home-cooked luncheon was served at tables covered with delicate pink cloths centered with fragile demi-tasse cups filled with tiny pink posies. The living room, dining room, balcony and upper and lower patios were bustling with activity.

MOST OF THE attractively dressed women played bridge following lunch but those who were not too sure of their Goren remained on the patios to hear Mr. Black of Sloanes offer many interesting home decorating ideas.

Co-chairman for the affair were Freddy Moran and Ginny Rarig.

Carmen Rurre, who seems to have an unexpended amount of energy, surprised many guests with her accomplished piano artistry. She answered request after request—mostly the wonderful old favorites.

Ann Arrighi looked her usual "Vogueish" self in a sleek French-beige outfit and, sure 'nuff, won the prize—this making the fourth blanket she has won!

Grace Lenahan was glowing in a sunshine yellow dress with matching pumps and Pat Kraatz looked SO smart in a two piece black frock.

Virginia Barnett, looking beautiful in an all green outfit, was, as usual, surrounded by many friends. In fact, it was nice to see so many old friends at such a nice affair in such a lovely setting.

And then there was fun

MAXINE AND DICK MYER have returned from a wonderful vacation trip to the Grand Canyon. En route they "deposited" their daughter, Judy, at Flagstaff, Arizona, where she began her studies at Arizona State College.

Twenty of young Johnny Nightengale's friends were invited to his home in Orinda to help celebrate Johnny's eighth birthday. The youngsters were treated to a "just right" barbecued dinner.

Among the busy mothers acting as booth chairmen at the very successful Sleepy Hollow School Carnival were Vesta Rasmussen, Bertie Eberhart, Fran Seaman, Peg Majka, Helen Pearson and Melba Wolcott. On the same day the Walnut Creek School held its Autumn Festival—complete with all sorts of booths, games, band concert, ham dinner and dance.

SPOTTED WORKING here and there were Anne Lee, Sandy Desimone, Myrtle Martin, Betty Burin, and Cleo Fuller.

On the town were . . .

The Cec Cantrills and Ernie Starkmans enjoyed a large evening in San Francisco—the highlight being "Auntie Mame", of course.

Have heard such raves about the Diablo Women's Garden Club's annual fall tea at Diablo Country Club. The theme was "Autumn" and, though we usually associate the bronze tones with this season, the talented ladies who planned the decor stressed the pink hues.

The Mmes. Ed Larmer, Donald Allen and John Ashford were responsible for the three tea tables which were absolutely STUNNING! They were covered with cut-work cloths upon which stood tall, three-branched candelabras holding slim pink tapers.

GRAPES AND LOQUAT leaves had been silvered and were combined with lush pink spider chrysanthemums. The delicious fancy cookies and nutbreads were made by the members. The group's president, Vawn (Mrs. King) Tolles looking lovely in beige lace, introduced the chairman of the day, Mrs. Jerry Jarratt who, in turn, introduced the very interesting speaker, Mrs. Gladys Windmiller of Stockton who is a professional flower arranger and a teacher at C.O.P.

Her creations were a real inspiration! The proceeds from this affair, I'm VERY happy to report, always go to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. Incidentally, Vawn and King Tolles had just returned from a Kiwanis convention in Sacramento. King is the new Kiwanis president in Pittsburg.

While others partied

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson took a leisurely trip to Los Angeles where they attended the League of California Cities Conference. While there Jean's parents left for a tour of the South Pacific on a Matson Line ship. Of course, the Andersons were on hand for the sailing.

Sun Society

DEN 2, PACK 209 recently toured the Walnut Growers Association on a field trip. Den Mother, Lily Malnick and assistant Den Mother, Virginia Rush, accompanied the boys who were Kenneth Malnick, Tim White, Scots Robertson, Mark Rush, Merl Abbas and Ross Abbas.

Virginia and Jim Turner had a "ball" when they attended the California Highway Patrol Convention in Bakersfield—such a town for fun!

"Fashion Matinee" was the theme used for the luncheon-fashion show given by the Laurel Juniors of Children's Hospital. This affair, too, was held at Diablo Country Club.

Fashions, coordinated by beautiful Mrs. David Fink, were from H. Liebes Co. and were copies of Paris originals and, incidentally, this was only their third showing.

The costumes were designed for attending all types of theatre—from afternoon to the most formal opera gowns. Theatre posters gaily decorated the ballroom and high-styled bonnets emerging from miniature hat boxes trimmed the tables.

THE CHAIRMAN, Mrs. Edward Mannon, happily introduced the honored guest, Mrs. William Oliver.

Last Saturday evening the Edward Mannon's hosted a large pre-"Head Dress Ball" party honoring the Laurel Junior's candidate, Mrs. Fink.

Some of those attending and going on to the ball later were the Jack Blocks, Thomas Crellins, Charles Curriers, Robert Gilfillans, Jay M. Goodmans, C. C. Heisters, Burt S. Hofmans, Perry Holmes, Lloyd Kindalls, Jr., Donald Martins, B. L. Smiths, Jr., John Tagues, Robert Teddys, Penn Wilsons and William Winslows.

There were Scouts, too

A real "bang-up" Halloween dance was given at the R. H. Baile home in Walnut Creek Friday night by Girl Scout Troop No.

Preview Is Next Friday

A unique preview of Christmas gifts and other specialty items, selected by prominent merchants in the Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek area, will be held next Friday at the Elks Lodge, Walnut Creek.

The display will be open from 12 noon to 10 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

This event is sponsored by the Mt. Diablo Mills College Club and the proceeds (to be paid by the merchants and not the viewers) will go to the Mills College Alumnae Association for aid to the college.

Like other private educational institutions Mills College depends on gifts and endowed funds to bridge the gap between tuition and the actual cost of education.

Admission to the general public will be without charge and will be for the purpose of giving the buying public ideas to supplement their Christmas shopping list.

No sales will be made at the event.

General chairman of the Gift Fair are Mrs. Herbert von Col-dite and Mrs. Edward Conner, both of Lafayette. Also them are Mesdames Scott Ramsden of Orinda, president of the club; Emmett Miller and James Burris of Lafayette, decorations; Robert Charlesworth of Walnut Creek, invitations; Frederick J. Moss of Walnut Creek, refreshments; Hugh K. McJunkin of Concord, hostesses; De Witt Krueger of Walnut Creek, posters; Gordon Amrein of Walnut Creek, finances; and John K. MacKenzie of Walnut Creek, publicity.

280. The girl's leader is Mrs. Roger Black and their guests were members of Boy Scout Troop No. 227 whose leader is Mr. Ted Beam.

The party was held in the Baile's large rumpus room which opens onto the pool-patio and both were decorated in "ghastly" fashion. Everyone who attended wore a costume (and there were some really terrific ones) and everyone who attended literally devoured the heaps and heaps of food which the girls had prepared.

MUCH, MUCH FUN was had by all! More fun to come, too, for Mrs. Black is planning to take the whole troop into Berkeley Friday to attend the Foothill Branch's "Haunted House".

Spotted at the "Gaslight" restaurant the other night—Paula and Bill Rigney, Dot and John Loop and, sitting with owner, Larry Blake, Regge Klipstein of "Silky Sullivan" fame. All were enjoying "Vans" Marshall's fabulous piano renditions.

Jeans, Gingham Ball Is Nov. 8 At Diablo Club

The strictly informal Jeans and Gingham Ball will be held November 8 at Diablo Country Club by the Alamo Dads Club.

Ed Logue is chairman.

The reason for the success of the Jeans and Gingham Ball is that proceeds are used to purchase equipment for the schools.

This equipment ordinarily would not be available or would have to come out of tax dollars, said Logue. Henry Gallagher's Orchestra will play.

Tickets will be available at the door.

The Alamo Dads Club, at their last regular meeting, voted to purchase two sets of reference books for the Alamo School, according to Spencer Arnold, president.

Arnold stated that the fathers of all children in the Alamo School are urged to attend the monthly meetings of the Alamo Dad's Club. The meetings are held the third Tuesday of each month at the Alamo School.

Other officers are Angelo Muzzini, first vice president; Bob Coyle, second vice president; Harry Greer, secretary; Walt Grey, treasurer; Dick Mundt and Wayne Bailey, publicity; Walt Lucas, entertainment; and Ed Logue, chairman of the Jeans and Gingham Ball.

Meadowbrook Golf Club Holds Halloween Frolic

There was true artistry in the assortment of costumes worn by the members, potential members and guests attending the Halloween Party given Saturday by Meadowbrook Golf Club. All members and guests were required to pass through a three-foot-high dark tunnel, its floor lined with covered inner tubes and squeakers, and wet string hung from the ceiling gave the impression of spider webs. Inside the clubhouse was the strangest collection of humanoid forms imaginable. There were the race driver and his pit man, who were in reality Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Taylor of Livermore; the court jester and

Black Jack the pirate, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baerenson, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Galvin of Lafayette appeared as head hunters. Representing the Roman Empire, in gold trimmed tunics were Andrew Ward and his party of three. THERE WERE African cannibals, later identified as Mr. and Mrs. Jay Morris of Lafayette, and a touch of royalty in the Court Lady and Cavalier in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kerber of Concord. The story "South Pacific" was burlesqued by Raymond Smith, costumed as a six-foot Hawaiian siren, and Mrs. Smith as Nellie Farbrush, complete with sailor suit. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee dressed as a prehistoric man and woman. THE JUDGES, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hagerty of San Pablo were hard pressed to limit the winners to four. Those chosen for the best matched pair were Dracula and his bride, later identified as Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lind of Lafayette; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Clark of Pleasant Hill, draped in furs as a cave man and woman, and Mrs. Robert Williams as Madam Death and the Accident Case. Mr. Williams "lost his head" during the judging, but was awarded a prize for suffering through the evening with his head swathed in bandages, complete with ice pick. The honorary prize of the evening was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eller who appeared as Zulu natives. Many of the costumed revelers defied identification to the very end.

Prep League Big Games on Tap

Dons To Play Las Lomas; Rams Meet Mt. Diablo

The League season as far as the preps are concerned reaches the midway point this week and games on tap will in several cases affect final standings, particularly as far as first division is concerned.

The big game in the Eastbay League finds Alhambra of Martinez meeting Livermore.

Both are undefeated and the winner here will probably wind up as the pennant winner. In the Contra Costa League Pleasant Hill faces Mt. Diablo at Concord and the fans should get their money's worth here.

The Pleasant Hill Rams came out of the Pitt game in good shape and all hands are reported ready to go.

DIABLO HAS a pair of speedsters in the backfield in Gary Casey and Al Trette, but a stiff pass defense could contain them.

The Ram quarterback, Jim Maples, had a pinched nerve in his throwing arm that sidelined him in the Pitt game but all is well now, and he is reported ready to go.

In the Foothill Division two games are on tap, with Piedmont getting the bye.

Acalanes, undefeated and untied to date, plays Las Lomas at Acalanes. The Walnut Creek Knights figure to win this one by a comfortable margin despite the fact several players may be out.

KEN BERNHARD, defensive half, and first string end Randy Olson haven't recovered from the Miramonte game, and are on the doubtful list with gimpy knees.

L. L. Knights Whip San Ramon Wolves, 34-6

The San Ramon Wolves invaded Walnut Creek last Friday night and while they put up a good first half battle, found the Las Lomas steam roller a bit too much in the second half, and they went down, 34-6.

The Wolves threw a scare into the Knights when they took a first quarter 6-0 lead.

The touchdown came when end Kent Evans raced behind the Las Lomas halfbacks and took a 15-yard scoring pass from quarterback Mike Kyle.

Tackle Floyd Blower blocked Evans' attempted conversion place kick.

The Knights came back to score in the second quarter when they took the ball on their own 44 and drove to the one in five plays.

Fullback Clark Ransome drove it over and the kicked the first of four successful conversion kicks to give the Knights a 7-0 lead which they held at the half.

The Knights got on their high horse in the third quarter as they struck for two touchdowns and one conversion point.

The first came when Ransome climaxed a 90-yard drive on a 10-yard run around left end, and later in the period hit pay dirt on another 10-yard slant over tackle.

The fourth quarter found Las Lomas striking twice more for touchdowns, both by halfback Steve Moore.

The first came when he gathered in a San Ramon pass on their 30 and went the distance to score.

Another pass interception later in the quarter brought the ball to the San Ramon 20.

Two cracks into the line brought the ball to the three and Moore toted it the rest of the way, hitting over left guard.

The Knights' guard, Jim Foreman, received recognition for his sterling defensive play with his interception of a Las Lomas pass.

In first downs Las Lomas held a 11-8 edge.

more in a game at Martinez that will probably decide the Eastbay League championship — take Alhambra, 20-19.

In college circles USC plays at Stanford and wins, 20-8. Too much Southern California power.

NOTRE DAME sinks Navy—the count, 21-7.

Colorado pulls a surprise as they upset Oklahoma, 14-8.

Oregon State hasn't lost a league game at home in 15 years. Its Oregon State 14, Cal 8.

The pros put on a better vaudeville show each week. George Halas put on the act last week, and it's Albert's turn this week.

The professor picks the 49ers to win, 32-29. Who they play is unimportant. It happens to be Detroit.

FUMBLES KEPT the Rams in trouble in the third and fourth quarters.

In the fourth quarter the Pirates drove from their own 24 to the Rams six only to have a hard-charging line stop them cold—throwing them back to the 11 on four plays.

When you shop at home you help yourself and your community.

Football 'Evils' Denied; Game's Values Described

by ERWIN MATTSON

Football is well on its way and in fact will soon be a matter of history except for the various bowl games—which for the most part come next year, since they will be played January 1, 1959.

One thing that always draws attention is the injury list and it in turn draws annual comments.

I know of one local couple who is collaborating on an article regarding the evils of football.

THE ONE MEMBER of the team doing the research has little knowledge of the game and the article being on the negative side seeks only the negative facts.

If you don't give negative facts then your article is "prejudiced."

To me, my article should present both sides, and there are always two sides to any issue.

Coaches for the most part are vitally interested in their players.

Injuries in football are generally exaggerated and coaches often play them up before games for a psychological advantage.

How many times is a player declared doubtful when he shows up fit as a fiddle and plays at top speed and efficiency come game time?

ONE SHOULD always remember that it is easier to measure the negative while the positive side is much more difficult to measure.

Any coach would agree that not all boys should play football—but for some, contact sport is a necessity—their physical and mental makeup need and require it, once they get it in one form or another.

One who has never played football or who dislikes contact sport has difficulty understanding one who does and if they do it requires a broadminded outlook which few of us have.

Personally I have never been able to get up to ballet and opera but I wouldn't abolish it because it is above me.

Fair statistical studies reveal that football isn't nearly as dangerous as it is played up to be.

YOUTH HAS boundless energy and seeks an outlet for it. For certain individuals football holds many values. It's a team game of great technical skill that satisfies a need for many.

It's a peculiar thing—writing something of a negative nature attracts more attention in general than something of a positive nature.

The article, when printed, will probably have a follow-up article on the other side. Both articles will be prejudiced. It's to be hoped the reader will read both.

Bob Vincent and Jim Bragg of the DV squad kept their winning records intact by downing their opponents in straight sets. Vincent and Bob Wiederhorn teamed up to win their doubles in one of the best matches of the day. But that ended DV's winning efforts as the Arroyo Viejo team copped the remaining four singles and two doubles matches.

Sunday the local team will entertain the tough Stockton squad on the Las Lomas courts. Play starts at 9:30 a.m.

Antioch Swamps Matador Team

The Miramonte Matadors played in Antioch in a practice game at Orinda last Friday afternoon and it proved to be a long game for home rooters and players alike as the invaders rocked and socked their way to a lopsided 54-0 win.

Antioch had three touchdowns nullified by penalties but scored a touchdown in the first quarter, two in the second, two in the third, and three in the final canto.

The Matadors never did generate a head of steam with their own offense.

Drops JV Game

In Junior Varsity football play last Thursday the Pleasant Hill crew dropped a 19-13 decision to Pittsburg, while in the Foothill League Miramonte in a practice tilt lost a 32-6 decision to Antioch.

League play found Acalanes and Las Lomas both staying in the undefeated column when the Dons rapped Piedmont, 20-12, after being behind 12-0, while the Knights trimmed San Ramon 14-0 in freshman play.

Mental Health Meeting Is Thursday At 8

An evening orientation will be sponsored by the Mental Health Association of Contra Costa, a United Crusade agency, Mrs. Hans Wendel announced today.

The meeting for new members and the public interested in learning about mental and emotional illness, will be held on Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Walnut Creek Elementary School.

"To Serve the Mind," a 25-minute sound film will be shown. It portrays current methods of treatment and displays the various services needed in the community.

After the film showing, a local psychiatrist will speak on "What Is Being Done for the Mentally Ill and What Remains to be Done."

The speaker will be announced shortly, Mrs. Catherine Long, Executive Director, said.

Persons interested in attending either event, or in the work of the local Crusade agency are asked to call Mrs. Long.

The total number of vehicles which crossed the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge from July 1, 1956 to June 30, 1957 was 33,751,448. This figure established a new high record for vehicular traffic on the bridge representing a gain of 2.27 percent over the preceding year.

'Red Riding Hood' Play November 8

Red Riding Hood and the Wolves, first play of the current season of live theatrical productions for children, presented by the East Bay Children's Theatre, Inc. will be seen at two performances November 8 at the Stanley School Auditorium in Lafayette. Curtain times are 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m.

A special version of the familiar fairy tale adapted by Charlotte Shorpenning, this play boasts two wolves — one young one who thinks he can act so much like a human being that no one will be able to tell that he isn't, and one old one who is disgusted with the young one's foibles.

The East Bay Children's Theatre is a non profit organization whose purpose is to bring live entertainment of high cultural and moral value to the children of the East Bay communities. The group's work is endorsed by the boards of education throughout Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

The cast of this first play is comprised of Children's Theatre members and volunteers from the community. All costumes and sets are also made by members of the group in the East Bay Children's Theatre workshop at the Junior Center of Art and Science in Mosswood Park in Oakland.

Local women contributing their time to this work are Mrs. David Bullen, Mrs. Jack Lackey, Jr., Mrs. Thomas R. Gaines, Mrs. Charles Morrill, Mrs. Rodney Saylor, Mrs. Robert Van Gelder and Mrs. Will Hall.

Acalanes Board Reviews District's Math Courses

Acalanes District Trustees met last week with the chairmen of math departments of the district's three high schools to review the math offerings in the high school district.

Department Chairmen Lloyd Hunt of Miramonte, Harold Oxsen of Acalanes and Bob Wignot of Los Lomas reported a high percentage of district pupils currently enrolled in mathematics courses.

The average Acalanes District student takes three years of math, while students with ability and a special interest in science and math careers take a full four years of math.

CHAIRMAN REPORTED on the two-year phase of the district's "pre-sputnik" co-ordinated science-math accelerated learning program for able students in those fields.

The math instructors outlined a break in the traditional trend of high school math course content and emphasized the need for a continued revision of course structure which could offer more of the currently traditional college classified math classes in high school for those students who can absorb advanced work.

In addition to the emphasis on accelerated math courses, department chairmen reported on the general mathematics program for average and slower learners. To insure basic competence in math, each Acalanes District high school requires every pupil to pass a basic math test in his senior year. Students who fail this exam must take a refresher math review course and pass a re-examination in order to graduate, according to the math department chairmen.

IN OTHER ACTION trustees: Endorsed Proposition No. 2 on the November ballot which provides $200,000,000 in state bonds for construction and purchase of school facilities. Trustees had previously urged a "No" vote on Proposition No. 17, which would alter the state tax system and

Audubon Society To Hold Meeting On November 13

The regular monthly meeting of the Mt. Diablo Audubon Society has been postponed one week as not to conflict with the first of the winter series of Audubon Screen Tours at Diablo Valley College Thursday. The local society meeting will be held in room 201, Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek, at 8 p.m. November 13.

Rufus W. Johnson, Mt. Diablo High School faculty member, will present the evening program, "Yosemite Back-Country." He will illustrate his talk with pictures taken by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Smith. The public is invited. November 9 the society will make a field trip to Crystal Springs Reservoir, San Mateo County, and meet at the parking area at 9 a.m. To reach the reservoir take the Bayshore Freeway, or San Mateo Bridge to San Mateo.

Take Third Avenue (a continuation of the bridge) west across the railroad tracks and El Camino Real to stop sign at Crystal Springs Road; turn left and proceed about four miles to Skyline Boulevard. Again turn left to parking area and reservoir.

All interested persons may join the trip. They should wear warm clothing and stout shoes and carry a lunch.

Lynn Farrar, AT 3-3938, and Miss Emily D. Smith of Saratoga are co-leaders of the expedition.

Fair Play Group To Hear Speakers

The Fair Play Council of Central Contra Costa County will hold a board meeting next Thursday at 8 p.m. in Las Lomas High School.

Speakers will be Phil Buskirk and Robert Schuetz. Buskirk is a Santa Clara County community relations director, American Friends Service Committee. He will talk about the American Friends group's experiences in housing.

Wheel Toys Needed Now By Bureau

The Christmas Bureau of Central Contra Costa County needs outgrown wheel toys, said Mrs. Richard Brooding, chairman of the bureau.

Tomorrow, the Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts of Lafayette, Orinda and Walnut Creek will collect bicycles, tricycles, wagons, trucks, fire engines, kiddie cars, rocking horses and other toys in reusable condition.

These toys will be repaired by the Senior Citizens of Lafayette. This Christmas these toys, "bright as new," will be given to the needy children in this community.

Mrs. Raphael Henrici will take calls for home pick up. The Scouts will also receive toys at the Louis Store in Lafayette, the Lucky Store in Orinda and the

Piggyback is for Children

"Piggyback" was lots of fun when you were five years old, but grown men don't play "piggyback."

When we expect and demand wage scales brought about through Labor-Management negotiations we should share in the responsibilities as well. No man has the right to collect benefits he could not get alone without accepting the obligations of those benefits.

Under the Taft-Hartley Law union contract provisions must cover all employees.

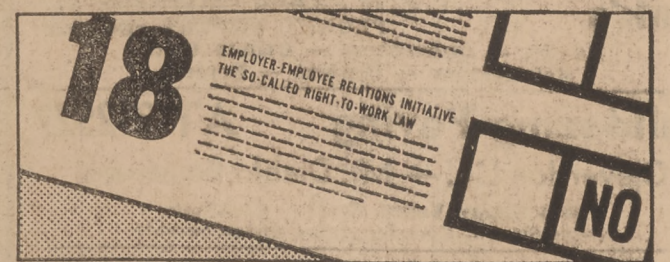

One obligation that should be accepted by all is to vote NO on Proposition 18, the so-called "right to work" law.

Playing "Piggyback"—riding on the shoulders of those who support organized labor advances is short-sighted and irresponsible.

Can you afford to risk your job security, collective bargaining, paid vacations and all the rest of the hard-won benefits which Labor-Management negotiations have produced?

The free ride philosophy is dangerous—it will wreck your community prosperity.

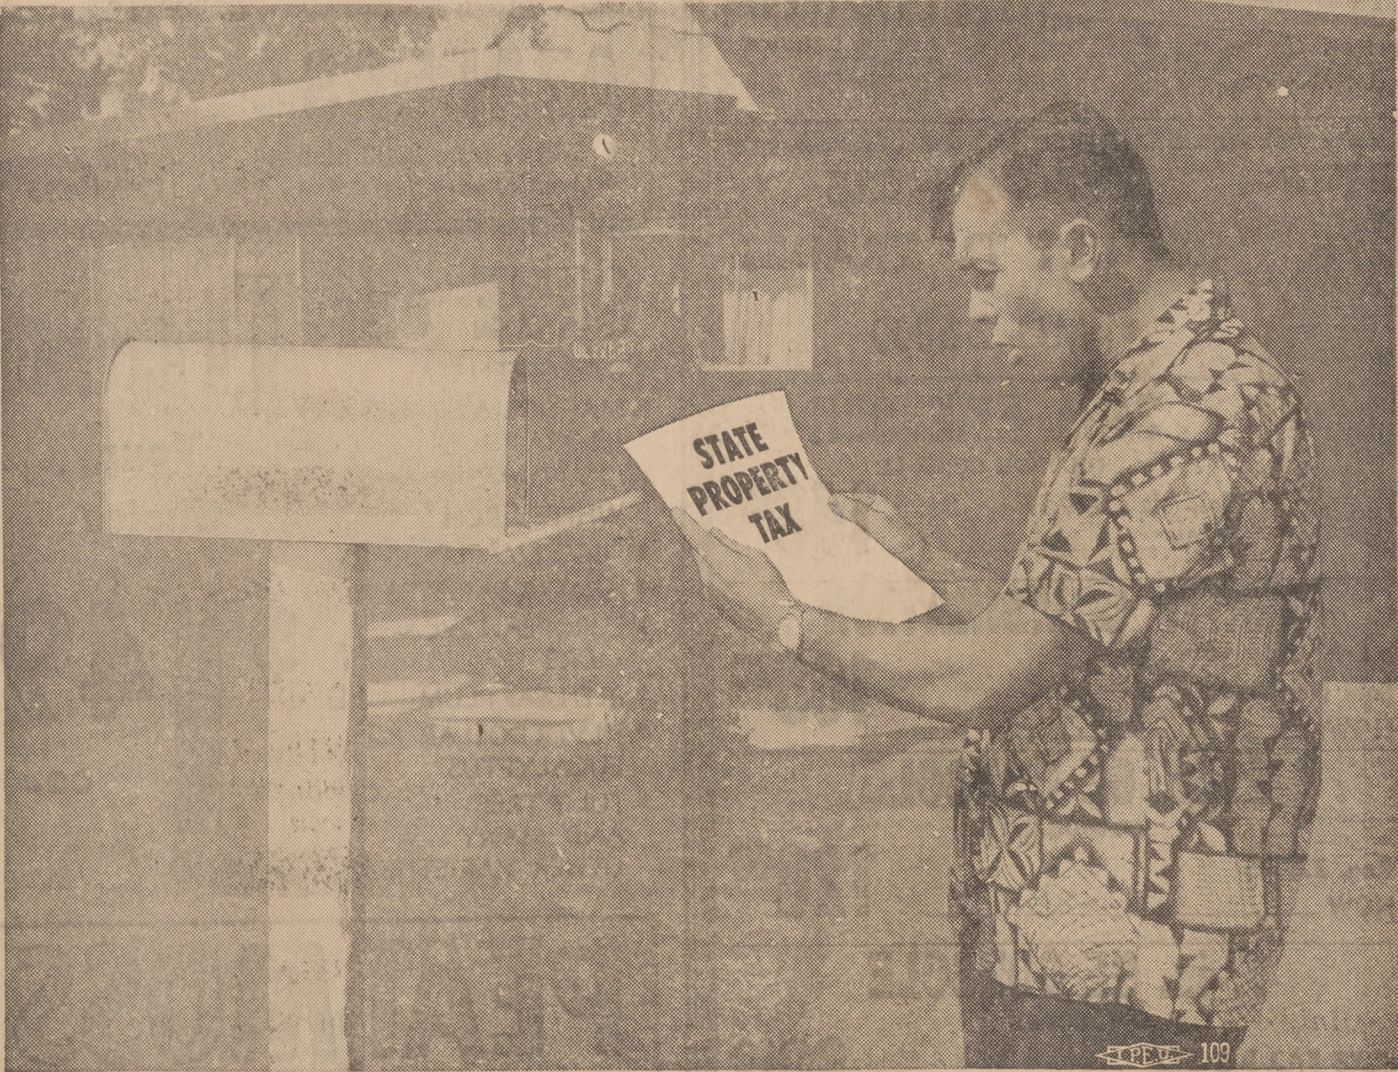

Last on your ballot—first in importance.

DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU!

Who wants to be stuck for a NEW STATE TAX ON HOMES? Or a new State sales tax on Food? Or new and higher taxes on Gasoline?

Nobody—of course!

Yet State officials, business economists and tax experts agree that these are the almost certain results of passage of Proposition No. 17—the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill on the November 4 ballot.

No. 17 is called the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill because it would wreck the machinery of State government by its irresponsible tax tinkering.

By reducing the State's chief source of revenue—the sales tax—No. 17 would imperil appropriations for schools, hospitals, aid to needy children and the aged. By hiking California income tax rates to the highest in the nation, No. 17 would drive business from California and threaten job security.

Who'll pay to put the pieces together again if the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill strikes? Middle and lower income bracket people would pay the most—through new and more burdensome substitute taxes at both the State and local levels. Don't let it happen to you!

These, and hundreds of other responsible California organizations agree:

Bonds to Pay For Buildings

An outlay of only $25,000 during the next five years on acquisition of leased county buildings and the construction of a 36,000 square foot addition to the County Administration Building in Martinez will save Contra Costa County taxpayers $171,000 or more in 14 years, according to County Administrator Desmond M. Teeter.

Teeter, whose forthcoming retirement was marked by a testimonial dinner Monday at Martinez, made the estimate of savings in a final appeal to the electorate to approve Measures C and D on the November 4 general election ballot.

Measure C calls for issuance of $1,220,000 in 14-year bonds which would finance purchase of the County Administration Building and the Pittsburg County Building from the County Employees Retirement Fund. Under the measure's wording, the bonds would not be sold unless an interest rate of three and a half per cent or lower were obtained on bid.

Measure D would provide $1,000,000 in 15-year bonds, also pegged at 3 1/2 per cent or less, for construction of 36,000 square feet of office space as an addition to the Administration Building.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

From HOWARD JEWEL

Democrat for Congress, 6th District

DEAR SIR:

One of the editorial columns in last week's Sun carried distortions of my positions which makes this letter mandatory:

100% VOTING RECORD

(1) I do not criticize the incumbent Congressman's 100% voting record per se. My position is that the percentage of roll calls a Congressman answers has little relation to the value of his work. As evidence of this may I point out that the two California Congressmen selected by their respective parties to run for higher office this year — Clair Engle and Patrick Hillings — had THE TWO LOWEST ATTENDANCE RECORDS OF THE CALIFORNIA DELEGATION.

To argue that they are, therefore, the two worst Congressmen would be as preposterous as to argue that my opponent is the best.

As for myself, I do not believe in voting for the sole purpose of maintaining a 100% attendance record. I intend to be on the floor voting, except when I can best serve the interest of my country and my district elsewhere.

INCUMBENT TAKES NO STANDS

(2) You said you had been "foolish" in a previous column in which you said the incumbent failed to take stands on the issues. This can't be true, you now say, because the incumbent voted on every issue.

You are not aware, apparently, that few of the major issues in this campaign were incorporated in any legislation before the 85th Congress and that no Congressman could take a position on these issues by simply casting a vote.

Probably the four most controversial issues facing the voter next Tuesday are (a) Brown versus Knowland for governor, (b) Foreign policy with respect to Quemoy and Matsu, (c) Proposition 16, and (d) Proposition 18.

Obviously, the incumbent could not vote in Congress on these issues as they emerge today in October, 1958. Aside from his voting record, what has he said?

(a) Brown versus Knowland. The incumbent has avoided this issue like the plague itself—and for obvious reasons. If he endorses Brown and his program, he loses Republican votes; if he endorses Knowland and his program, he loses Democratic votes.

I endorse Attorney General Brown and have done so consistently.

(b) Quemoy and Matsu. Two months ago, my opponent was vociferously in favor of the obdurate Dulles policy of support of Chiang at any cost. Then, after polls showed that voters oppose committing the United States to defense of these islands 7 to 1 and after Dulles himself changed by "softening" Quemoy policy, the incumbent again fell silent on the whole subject.

I feel that we should defend Formosa, but not Quemoy and Matsu and have said so consistently.

(c) Proposition 16. Silent on this issue until two weeks ago, my opponent has now issued a press release stating he opposes Proposition 16. He did not explain why his stand was so late nor what had occurred to make him reverse his earlier position.

I have consistently opposed Proposition 16, as does the Democratic platform.

(d) Proposition 18. My opponent has never stated in the public press whether he is for or against Proposition 18, the issue which California and national political analysts agree is the most vital issue in our election.

I have consistently opposed Proposition 18, as does the Democratic platform.

Very simply, I do not feel that a Congressman who does not talk about the issues and make his positions known can claim that he is showing leadership.

Sincerely yours,
HOWARD H. JEWEL

Democrat Wives Hear Mrs. Engle At Pitto's

Wives of Democratic candidates for office in Contra Costa County honored Mrs. Claire Engle, wife of the Second Congressional District congressman candidate for U.S. Senator, at the home of Mrs. Louis Pitto, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Engle told them that California's women are becoming more interested in politics than ever before.

Mrs. Engle said that women are increasingly recognizing the important effect that government policies have on their daily lives. She pointed to the steadily diminishing size of a $10 bag of groceries and the fact that more and more are coming to take a greater interest in government and politics.

Sharing receiving line duties with Mrs. Engle at the tea were Mrs. Howard Jewel, wife of the Democratic candidate for Congress; Mrs. Jerome Waldie, wife of the 10th District Democratic Assembly candidate, and Mrs. S. C. Masterson, whose husband is seeking reelection from the 11th Assembly District.

Presiding at the pink-decorated tea table were Mrs. George Miller Jr., wife of the State Senator from Contra Costa County, and Mrs. Douglas Page, whose husband serves on the Walnut Creek City Council.

Committees Work For Dr. Marchus

Pat Brown Is Jewel's Guest; Reception Held

Area chairman working for the election of Dr. Floyd Marchus to the County Superintendent of Schools post stepped up their activities this week.

Working for the campaign are the following area chairmen: Mrs. Stephen White, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Paul Pratt, Walnut Creek; Clarence Hockett, Alamo-Danville; Mrs. Charles Erickson, Orinda and Mrs. Harlan Thomas, Lafayette.

There is only one way to keep your car in good condition and that is to worry about it. Take your car to a responsible mechanic often to insure that it is in tip top condition. It is easier to help a stalled motorist than to be a stalled motorist.

Drive carefully. Many of our roads wind through the hills, and there are many small children playing in the area. An accident could be tragic.

Conti Outlines His Position On Election Issues

Sam Conti, candidate for the 10th Assembly District, speaking in Lafayette this week to precinct workers, reminded them that he is strongly opposed to both Propositions 16 and 17, and added that both represent a threat to California's school system.

"I favor living within our present tax system. Proposition 17 would be detrimental to California's Veterans' farm and home loan program and would curtail State aid to our public schools," Conti, an attorney and former Pittsburg school board member, said.

He also stressed that he is opposed to any program leading to socialized medicine and is alarmed by efforts to repeal loyalty oaths for public employees and candidates for public office.

"If NO OATHS of loyalty were required, the last legal check against U.S. Communists and fascists would disappear," Conti said.

Sam Bradbard, Conti's campaign chairman, announced formation of two new committees for Conti.

Walnut Creek's Citizens for Conti, under the chairmanship of William C. McIntosh, includes Richard A. Lommel, Herb Goranson, Roland H. Ferrett, Dr. Charles J. Hart, Ernest J. Dufour, Edward Shaw, Mrs. Doris Yeager, Harry H. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tweed, Charles Exner.

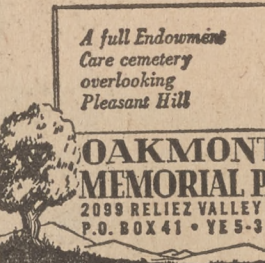

King Parker Jr., John Wolverton, Dr. Gordon Van Nuy, Roy F. Hjermsen, Donald R. Senior, Eugene R. Spencer, Bruce Lee and Fred B. Ashton.

Martinez area Democrats for Conti include Mrs. Glen W. Jeans, chairman; Glen Jeans, Josephine Martini, Shirley and Harry Pecantini, Hilda H. Jory, Florence Prater, Winifred Van Orden, Gladys Spalding, W. D. Dockstad, R. A. and Brock Harrison and Mrs. Thomas Fernandez.

CONTI has been the guest of honor at a series of coffee parties in Lafayette.

Waldie 'Happy' With Reception; Covers Area

Jerome Waldie, Democrat candidate for Assembly, 10th District, will continue his door-to-door campaigning in central Contra Costa County through this week-end.

Waldie will spend these last few days of the campaign ringing doorbells in Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda.

During the past few weeks Waldie has covered precincts in Danville, Concord and Martinez as well as some precincts in Walnut Creek.

Waldie has indicated that he is happy with the reception given him thus far by local residents. "I am especially pleased," he said, "with the intelligent interest so many of the people I have contacted have shown in my campaign."

Taxpayers Take Bond Issue Stand

Dr. L. E. Carbert, president of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, announced today that the board of directors of the tax group, following a recommendation of its public expenditures committee, was opposing Proposition C and endorsing Proposition D, both concerning county building bond issues.

Proposition C, which is a bond issue to make immediate purchase of buildings already constructed by the county from funds supplied by the Employee Retirement System, was opposed on the grounds that the savings were non-existent, or at least negligible, and on the principle that the buildings should have been constructed in compliance with a comprehensive capital improvement program.

"If the buildings had been constructed as a part of such a long-range plan, the public could have participated in the development of facilities which the taxpayers are now being asked to finance," Carbert stated.

Proposition D was endorsed because the buildings to be financed are a part of a long-range county plan and because additional office space is required as a result of the shift of the Fifth Superior Court from offices in the Richmond Civic Center

Voters Favor Kirkwood Says Chairman

Voter sentiment among Democrats, Republicans and Independents strongly favors the reelection of State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood, Committee Chairman, Mrs. Hal Bates said today.

"Kirkwood's record of 15 years of dedicated public service and as Controller during the past six years has been outstanding. Kirkwood is recognized as a courageous leader who puts the interest of all of the people of California first. And most important of all voters are realizing that Kirkwood is the only qualified candidate in the Controller's race," she said.

"Kirkwood's support cuts apart party lines and includes virtually every newspaper in this state as well as civic groups, labor, industry and agriculture in California," Mrs. Bates pointed out.

"We in Contra Costa County don't want a State Controller who will make a political machine out of an independent office that over the years has been given outstanding protection of all citizens of the state. We resent Kirkwood's opponent's open advocacy of a return to a 'spoils system' and his desperate grab at Pat Brown's coat-tails," she continued.

CIVIC LEADERS—ABLE SERVANTS OF HIGH TRUST

The Honorable SAM RAYBURN (Democrat)

Speaker of the House of Representatives longer than any other Speaker in history, said this on experience in Congress: "It takes a while for a man to learn and get established and gain his full influence. He doesn't reach his full usefulness his first term or two. And the worst thing a district can do for itself, if it's got someone here doing his job, is to keep changing its Congressman. A man makes a record here about the way he does in business, or the law, or anything else. It's hard work that makes the difference."

Transport Agency Claims Near Unanimous OK Vote

Near unanimous approval by organizations of all classifications of Proposition 'B,' the public transportation system bond issue on the ballot Tuesday, is claimed by Senator Arthur H. Breed Jr., chairman of the Citizens' Committee for Better Transit.

"Business groups, improvement clubs, taxpayers' associations and labor organizations are numbered among the endorsements of Proposition 'B' already received," said Breed.

"THESE LEADERS in community activities have studied the problem of public transportation and realize that continued growth depends to a large degree on modern, efficient, fast and comfortable public transit.

"The private carriers have failed to keep pace with the growth of these communities. Only the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District's plan, developed by a nationally-recognized firm of engineers, can solve the problem," he said.

Organizations which have formally endorsed Proposition "B" and its self-liquidating bond issue of $16,900,000, include the following:

Downtown Property Owners' Association, Carmen's Union Local 192; San Lorenzo Village Homes Association, United Steel Workers of America Local 3367, Carpenters Local Union No. 36, American Legion Service Club, Elmhurst Business and Professional Association, Merriewood Improvement Association, Uptown Development Association.

LAKE HIGHLANDS Improvement Club, Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America Local 42, Greater Oakland Community Council (representing 15 organizations).

San Leandro Chamber of Commerce, Laundry Workers No. 2, AFL-CIO; Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, Oakland Civil Service Employees Association, Fairfax Business Association, Inc., Millmens Union Local 550, Central Labor Council of Alameda County, Building Trades Council of Alameda County, Alameda County Committee on Political Education.

"THIS DIVERSIFICATION of interested organizations indicates clearly the soundness of the Transit District plan," said Breed.

"They realize that good public transit can be had with the passage of Proposition "B," with no increase in tax rates and at far less than those charged by Key System," he continued.

"Of particular interest to taxpayers is the fact that the $16,900,000 bond issue can be met from revenues, without additional burdens on the taxpayers.

"THIS IS POSSIBLE because a publicly-owned transit system is exempt from most of the taxes paid by the private carriers.

Taylor Endorses Richard Mitchell

Supervisor Ray Taylor today gave his endorsement to the candidacy of Richard J. Mitchell of Walnut Creek for a seat on the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District board of directors.

"Although the Board of Supervisors is on record in opposition to the transit district and the $16,900,000 bond issue on the general election ballot, I believe it is essential that our area have representation on the transit board," Taylor said.

"For several years Mitchell has been active in civic affairs and has taken an outstanding part in planning and zoning of the Pleasant Hill area, and I am sure he will be able to protect our interests," he concluded.

Candidates For EBMUD Cite Gains

Dan Luten and Anga Bjornson, candidates for the board of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, said last night that the incumbent board may be becoming insensitive to the public demand to save the San Pablo reservoir lands from subdivision.

"We are achieving success," Luten told the audience at the First Baptist Church in Richmond.

"Six years ago the incumbent board sold off part of Wildcat Canyon to private purchasers rather than to the City of Richmond who wanted it for a park area.

"A year and a half ago, the watershed lands of San Pablo Reservoir were declared surplus and for sale to any subdivider who could meet the conditions of sale.

"The board could see no reason to hold the land then. But now they are expressing an interest in recreation and saying that they would be glad to cooperate with regional authorities," he said.

Harris Gets Commendation From Trustees

Ralph L. Harris, candidate for Contra Costa County superintendent of schools, today had been commended by the Sheldon School Board for his "capable and imaginative leadership in the capacity of Sheldon District superintendent over the past six years."

Although Sheldon School District has grown 10-fold over the past nine years, a curriculum based on individual abilities has been effectively maintained under the extreme strain of rampant growth, the resolution states.

If you need tires and just can't afford them now. Think first, if you can afford a funeral.

Ring for Judge Committee Notes Qualifications

Arguing for the qualifications for judge of Terence Ring, candidate for Judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District, the Ring for Judge Committee this week compared case experience figures between Ring and his opponent, Mrs. Betsy Fitzgerald Rahn.

"The Justice Court records reveal that during the time Terence Ring's opponent has been in practice in Walnut Creek, she has never tried a case in this court," the committee said.

"During this same period of time, Ring has tried more than 150 cases in the court. The Superior Court records reveal a similar disparity of experience," the committee continued.

Members of the committee making the statement included Joe Longacre Jr., Ned DeLavaga, Rowland Barrett, Vance W. Perry, Jackson Davis, Jack Hageman, Emmett McKeegan and William F. Anderson.

"Both candidates have pledged to devote all the time the office demands," continued the committee. "We believe that both candidates are persons of integrity and that the promise of each should be equally respected," said the committee.

Symposium Is Planned for November 14

The teachers of the Contra Costa Junior College District, under the leadership of the Faculty Associations at Diablo Valley College and Contra Costa College, San Pablo, have organized a symposium to study the problems facing today's schools.

The symposium will be held at Diablo Valley College in the late afternoon and evening of November 14.

Educational leaders from throughout the Bay Area have been invited to talk and be questioned on the following topics: The Financing of Public Schools; Planning a Public Junior College; The Public School Organization and Human Relations; Teacher Procurement, Teacher Responsibilities.

Leaders and members from business, labor and service groups have been invited to join in an informed consideration of the educational problems facing this and all other communities.

Here is Your Chance to Join Christmas Bureau!

The Christmas Bureau of Contra Costa County for the ninth year is seeking the help of civic, church, school and fraternal organizations to provide a happier Christmas for the needy families of the area. The Christmas Bureau, which is operated by the Volunteer Bureau of Walnut Creek, provided food, toys and clothing for 69 families and 366 children, last year.

"The purpose of the Christmas Bureau, which works closely with the American Red Cross, schools, churches and County Welfare, is to discover the needs, certify the worthiness of recipients and to act as a clearing house to avoid duplication," said Mrs. Richard Brooding, chairman of the bureau.

"WE ENCOURAGE all groups to register with us immediately. Individuals and clubs can help us by cash contributions which will be used for food, shoe orders and clothing, by contributions of canned food and new toys, and by notifying the Bureau of needy families," she added.

Christmas Bureau area representatives are Mrs. Robert Haring in Orinda, Mrs. Peter Stark in Lafayette, Mrs. William Weiskirch in Walnut Creek.

Many groups are already actively working with the Bureau.

Under Mrs. Ernest Fernsten, vice president of Diablo Valley Girl Scouts, dolls will be collected in this area.

GIRLS WILL bring the dolls to troop meetings this month. These dolls will be refurbished by Dollies, Inc. of Lafayette under the leadership of Mrs. Mae Watkins.

Mr. Bruce Herbert, Meridian chairman of the Boy Scouts has announced that on November 1 Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts will collect wheel goods, and other toys and books in good condition (no stuffed animals).

These toys will be repaired by the Senior Citizens of Lafayette.

Unique Safety Program Is Told

The Contra Costa Safety Council plans to expand the scope of its services so that safety organizations will have a more effective medium for coordinating their activities.

At the October 16 meeting of the executive committee held at the council's headquarters at 2030 Mt. Diablo Street, Concord, a decision was reached. It may result in an entirely new approach to the work of the Safety Council in Contra Costa County, say leaders.

A committee headed by Bill Dundas, assistant county traffic engineer, working with John Weil, safety chairman Mt. Diablo Council PTA, and Art Dambacher, safety coordinator and Civil Defense coordinator. A Calaveras School District, plan to map out an action program for the Contra Costa County Safety Council.

Their report will be ready in approximately three weeks.

It is expected that as a result of their study all the communities in the county will feel the impact of the Contra Costa Safety Council's activities, and that the needs of safety organizations throughout the area will be more adequately met.

Cancer Group's Services Told In Pamphlet

A new pamphlet describing the research, education and services available through the American Cancer Society may be obtained without charge from the Contra Costa County Branch, 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin, branch president, announced today.

Entitled "The American Cancer Society—What It Is," the 24-page booklet details the history, growth and function of the society which since 1913 has led in the struggle against the disease which today is expected to strike one in every four Americans now alive, Dr. Pellegrin said.

"Fifty per cent of all patients with cancer would be alive and free of disease five years after treatment if the most modern methods of early diagnosis and curative treatment were used in every case," the local president pointed out in urging all persons to be alert to early signs.

DON'T TAX SCHOOLS DON'T RAISE TAXES

$118,000,000.00...is the amount of taxes the State Board of Equalization reports you are saved every year by California's nonprofit schools built, paid for, maintained by Protestant, Catholic, Jewish and nonsectarian groups.

$400,000,000.00...is the sum that would be required—again by official report of the State Board of Equalization—to duplicate the school buildings built at no public expense by California's 1,076 nonprofit schools.

To tax them would shift a high percentage of their enrollment into critically over-crowded public schools—at the public's expense!

$346.00 PER PUPIL...is the average cost per year to the taxpayer to educate a child in the public school system, according to figures supplied by State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood.

The State Board of Equalization reports that if these schools were taxed, they would provide less than $1,800,000 in tax revenue. Don't punish schools that are giving the taxpayers the greatest bargain in history—a $118,000,000 tax saving in exchange for less than $1,800,000 in tax exemption. To punish these schools with a tax would punish every California taxpayer.

IT'S UN-AMERICAN...Proposition No. 16 singles out for taxation the nonprofit elementary and high schools sponsored and paid for by Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths. It is a PUNITIVE measure. It violates the American tradition of tax-free education. AND ITS PURPOSE IS DISCRIMINATION.

No state taxes nonprofit schools, for the simple reason that they save taxpayers millions of dollars every year in school support—$118,000,000 in California alone. Parents of children attending nonprofit schools pay the entire cost without one cent of state aid.

IT'S UNFAIR...It is unfair to force a family to pay a double tax for education. Parents of children in nonprofit schools pay their full share of public school taxes. To tax their nonprofit schools would be taxing them twice for education.

None of the other 48 states taxes these schools. Tax-free education is an American tradition originating in colonial times.

Nonprofit colleges and universities are not taxed. It is unfair and inconsistent to tax California's 390 Protestant, 643 Catholic and 43 Jewish and nonsectarian elementary and high schools.

WHO IS PROMOTING NO. 16?

A front organization deceptively calling itself "Californians for Public Schools"—which has NO CONNECTION WHATSOEVER with the public schools, does not have ONE public school official or teacher on its committee, has NEVER supported a single public school bond issue, or ever raised its voice to help solve any of the critical problems of the public schools. The sole purpose of No. 16 is DISCRIMINATION.

NO ON 16

In The Best Interest of Public Education . . .

Vote YES

Propositions 2 and 3—Authorizing State bonds for $220,000,000 for loans and grants to school districts for sites, construction and equipment (Prop. 2); and $200,000,00 to build and equip State institutions, including State Colleges (Prop. 3).

Proposition 17—Reduces sales and use tax from 3 to 2 per cent. Changes State income tax rates to a new graduated range of from 1/2 to 46 per cent. If passed, this proposition could seriously cripple financing of State services, including aid to education. Proposition 17 could mean HIGHER LOCAL PROPERTY TAXES to offset the loss of State aid to local schools.

To Open Youth Concert Series

The Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts will present a concert series designed for the family next year.

Through popular demand, for the fourth year the world-famous San Francisco Symphony Orchestra will begin the series on January 25.

On March 1, the Company of the Golden Hind will present a Mozart Comic Opera, and the Roger Wagner Chorale will perform on April 5.

Because the concert season was a success last year, and because so many youth in this area are studying instrumental music in the schools, the Board of Directors of the Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts will present a concert band as a bonus program for season ticket holders.

It will be the Sixth Army Band. As in the past, no single admissions will be sold.

The content, the price, the place and the time of the concerts are all planned for family enjoyment.

The program will give a variety of fine music for only $3.50 a season ticket for both adults and students.

The concerts are at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday afternoons and are one hour long.

Ticket sales will start January 5.

However, orders for Christmas gifts may be made before Christmas. For further information, call Mrs. Charles F. B. Price, Jr. or write to Central Contra Costa Youth Concerts at Post Office Box 83, Walnut Creek.

BROWN: "YES!"

KNOWLAND: "YES!"

KNIGHT: "YES!"

STATE CHAMBER: "YES!"

AFL-CIO: "YES!"

Proposition 4 is California's opportunity to create a new era of recreational pleasure and Statewide prosperity by developing its harbors—coastal and inland—small and large—for all craft—from outboards to ocean liners. Proposition 4 is a self-liquidating bond issue—costing the taxpayer nothing! It not only provides funds to modernize California's vitally important State Harbor, but in addition makes it possible for communities in every section of the State to develop urgently needed small boat facilities.

Bride-to-Be Is Honored By Parties

A whirlwind of parties has preceded the wedding of Christine Winters of Orinda to Mr. William Robert Dawdy.

The ceremony, to be recited tomorrow at home nuptials in the Bonita Lane residence of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Robert Chalmers Winters, will be followed by a wedding reception at the La Espiral home of the Ernest Siegels.

The benedict's family, the Marvin Dawdys, arriving today from Tucson, Arizona, will be entertained tonight by Mrs. Winters, the bride-elect and her sister Anne. Thursday night Mrs. Winters hosted the wedding entourage of 12 at a rehearsal dinner.

A score or more of showers have feted the bride, among these, one given Sunday by Chi Omega sorority sisters, Mrs. Pate Thomson and Mrs. William Bedard at the home of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall of Orinda. The Spinster dinner was given on Wednesday by Miss Sue McCauley, sorority sister and bridesmaid, at the Oakland home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McCauley.

When in doubt while driving—slow down.
